

M'DOWELL AND A WOMAN MISSING FROM THE CITY

Sensational Fight in Chinese Restaurant Followed by Two Cases of Desertion.

TALE TOLD BY THE ABANDONED HUSBAND

The culmination of the cutting thinks she is in Pittsburg, but has scraped in the Chinese restaurant, Diamond street, in which Thomas Wright carved Charles McDowell, proprietor of the establishment, for paying attention to his wife and also slashed the head cook for interfering, is the breaking up of the two families concerned. It is said Mrs. Wright has left her husband forever, and that McDowell has deserted his wife and three children, the youngest of which is only three years old.

Wright, it will be recalled, was arrested on a charge of cutting with intent to kill, but the case went no farther than the grand jury, which body dismissed it, declaring that Wright did not carve his man deep enough. Since the dismissal McDowell and Mrs. Wright are said to have left the city and there is no clue as to their whereabouts. Wright appeared at the city hall last evening and related to the mayor the story of the double desertion. He stated that McDowell left the city on Monday, April 18, and that Mrs. Wright disappeared on the following day.

The wife of Wright had nearly all of the household goods shipped to her parents' home near Ohioville and sent the oldest children there. She said she was going home, also, but Wright declares that she never went. He been told a number of times of late that she is in the city now and hiding from him. Thinking it possible that she might have remained here, Wright wanted the mayor to lend assistance in locating her. He said he received notification by several parties that they had seen her on the streets and once in the restaurant where the trouble started. He got a letter from his little girl at Ohioville, stating that she did not know anything of the mother, but that the latter had said that she would never come back to live with him again.

Mrs. McDowell is reported badly broken up over the desertion. When her husband left it is said he gave her only $8 and it has been spent long ago in the keeping of herself and three children. McDowell told her he was going to Battle Creek and would send for her. She does not think he will keep his promise, and will likely return to her old home in Kentucky before long.

Wright has a letter written by his wife to McDowell in which she asked him to be sure and meet her on a certain afternoon. She said: "If you don't see me this afternoon I will go daffy."

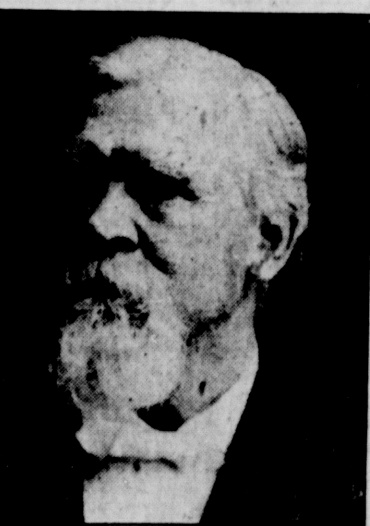

Wright avers that he would not live with his wife again and that he will sue for a divorce in a short time.

RECEPTION GIVEN TO NEW PASTOR

Rev. J. W. Dunbar and Wife Cordially Welcomed to Chester.

INFORMAL BUT ENJOYABLE

The reception tendered Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Dunbar at the Chester U. P. church last night was a most enjoyable affair. Notwithstanding the miserable condition of the weather the attendance was large and all present entered into the spirit of the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar were made to feel that their residence in Chester would be pleasant, and a season to which they might look back in years to come with genuine delight. The reception was informal, and the attendance was not confined to members of the Presbyterian congregation alone, but every denomination in the town was well represented. A number of people from the East Liverpool First and Second churches were present. The evening was spent in social intercourse, interspersed with musical selections of an enjoyable character.

Rev. Mr. Dunbar takes charge of the new Presbyterian congregation of Chester under the most favorable and promising auspices. He is peculiarly fitted for the charge, being an excellent preacher, a good organizer and a man who can get close to his people without an effort, because it is his nature.

The accompanying cut is a very good likeness of Rev. Mr. Dunbar. It is from his latest photograph. He now wears no moustache.

It cannot be found in the governor's office, though the records of the senate show that it was sent there.

MERCHANTS' FEAST NOTABLE SUCCESS

Wellsville Business Men's Association Give Annual Banquet in City Hall.

LIVE NEWS OF WELLSVILLE

People and Business Men to Pull Together for Advancement of the City and to Keep Wellsville Money in Wellsville.

Much benefit to Wellsville may result from the first annual banquet given last night by the Wellsville Business Men's Protective Association. Intimation of this fact was made in every toast spoken last night. An improvement to the police force may result at once, for P. M. Smith said if some Democrats instead of Prohibitionists were on the force, much money would have remained in Wellsville that during the past few weeks has been taken to Lisbon.

In a few well chosen remarks, Samuel S. Cope, as toastmaster, told of the purpose of the banquet, and the future objects of the Business Men's Association. He said this was the first banquet ever given by any association of the character in Wellsville, all of which lends additional force to the prosperity and advancement of Wellsville.

"When the Cleveland & Pittsburg railroad was started," said Mr. Cope, "Clevelanders held only $14,000 worth of stock and Wellsville held $114,000 worth. Today those conditions are about reversed." He introduced Mayor Fogo.

"There is no need for hostility among our merchants," said Mayor Fogo, "and all should work together for the uplifting and advancement of our city. We have been outstripped by East Liverpool," he said, "but we hold no enmity toward those merchants. Many stock companies have been organized in Wellsville and have failed, but this was not caused by no loyal support, but by suspicion. We have been too conservative. Instead of being satisfied with a six per cent return on our investments, some have desired 30 per cent."

"Of the future," said the mayor, "let it not be represented by the past. When we have loyalty to home merchants, we are assisting in the advancement of our city."

President Daniel F. Steiner, in a short address, told of the Business Men's Association. He started to speak in English, but broke over into German, for the benefit of those Germans present.

"Ever since we bought a gold brick, in the plant of the Carroll-Porter scheme, we have been unable to find any person who ever belonged to the old board of trade," said President Steiner. "We have been called a slow town," he continued, "but we have been doing the best we can." The objects of the association were told by the speaker, and upon what lines it was formed. He said a great work lay before the association, and that by hard work and loyalty to home merchants, the association proposed to do much for the advancement of the city.

W. E. Butler told of "The Ideal Merchant." "No good merchant objects to competition," said Mr. Butler, "just so long as that competition is fair. This is the era of competition and the supreme court has recently said so."

"A merchant should cater to the wants and desires of his customers," said Mr. Butler, "and he will find that this will be the means of increasing his business. Large sales and a fair profit is a great deal better than a few sales with a large profit. When a merchant wants goods for himself, he should see to it that such business is thrown to his fellow-merchants, as this is also the age of reciprocity. Keep Wellsville money in Wellsville, and then practice what we preach."

P. M. Smith spoke of "Loyalty to Home Markets," and in so doing told where the police force could keep lots of money in Wellsville instead of allowing it to go to Lisbon. His reference to this fact made a hit with those at the banquet.

"I have full confidence in the sentiment expressed here tonight," said Mr. Smith, "and a great possibility lies before us. Justice requires that favors should be returned as rapidly as possible, and in this fact lies the future success of any movement or merchant."

"We should encourage people to come to Wellsville," he said, "and we should also do all we can to assist in beautifying our little city. Here is a work that the women of the city can take an active part in, and once get the women interested in the movement, success in any work is an assured fact. Organized effort will accomplish this."

George B. Aten was to respond to the toast, "Business Men's Associations and Their Accomplishments." Owing to illness he was unable to attend the banquet, and regrets were read. W. R. MacDonald spoke in the stead of Mr. Aten and said that he had just been asked to "fill in."

In his own happy way Mr. MacDonald told a few stories to get the restless men in good humor. "There is a power behind organization," said Mr. MacDonald, "if that power is rightly used. Let representative business men go before council and ask for the passage of an ordinance, and no council will say them nay. All this is accomplished by organization, and without it, work is almost in vain." As he said he was just "filling in," he said no more.

A report of the head bookkeeper of Wellsville for the past thirty years was made, when Toastmaster Cope said that the "Advancement of Wellsville in the Past Ten Years" would be told by Prof. J. L. MacDonald.

"Present your case to your merchant in a businesslike way," said Prof. MacDonald, "then go on about your business and allow the merchant to attend to his business."

"Compare, if you will, the statements of the banks and building and loan associations of Wellsville for the past ten years and you will be able to tell at a glance just how rapidly our little city has been advancing."

"Our mills have doubled their capacity," he said, "and we have three times the potteries here now that we had a decade ago. Whatever we do, do slowly and do well. If we wait possibly another ten years we may have the Belt Road completed, but I hope it will be completed long before then."

"Scraps" was the theme of an interesting toast by Attorney Frank L. Wells. He aimed to make the point clear that to obtain success in any movement, harmony was essential. There is no room in any big movement which is hoped to be made a success for the drone or the person who hesitates to do his share or who attempts to throw cold water on the work of others. Mr. Wells gave a most interesting speech, which was somewhat foreign to any which preceded him.

Justice J. W. Riley, in a manner for which he is noted, closed the speaking by reciting "Parrhasites." Mr. Riley is achieving just fame as an elocutionist, and for his work last night he was warmly applauded.

The banquet itself was a most pleasing affair. Over 100 guests were present, many of whom were ladies. Merchants and their ladies from East Liverpool were present, and a most friendly feeling existed between the visitors and the home merchants. Small tables were scattered about the spacious auditorium of the Wellsville city hall, and about these tables four chairs were placed. Not one table was vacant. The menu, which was prepared by Mrs. Elwood Bunting, equalled if not surpassed anything of the kind ever served in the city before. There were four courses.

Music was furnished during the evening by Woods' orchestra, and at the close of the banquet, dancing followed until 2 o'clock this morning. The association should be congratulated upon their efforts to promote friendship and good will throughout the city, and present indications point to their work being entirely successful.

A NEW INDUSTRY ASSURED WELLSVILLE

Plant Employing 50 Skilled Workers to Be Moved Here—Others in Prospect.

It has been definitely arranged that at least one new industry will be built in Wellsville during the coming summer, and the prospects are favorable for another. The improvement and rebuilding of one of the biggest plants in Wellsville is also to commence soon.

While details of the new proposition to build a new factory in this city cannot be given out at this time, sufficient has been announced by those connected with the improvement to prove that all is about ready to start work on the new plant.

This factory is now located many miles away from Wellsville, and in a northern state. Wellsville people have long been identified with the company now operating this plant, and it is their wish that it be removed to

REV. GLASS SWEARS OUT WARRANTS FOR ARRESTS

He Is Zealously Seeking to Find His Wife and a Millworker Named Wier.

SOME NEW PHASES IN THE UNFORTUNATE CASE

Since the sensational episode on Washington street last Tuesday morning in which Rev. John Glass, of Walker, pastor of an Ironville church, his wife and a young woman known by the names, Miss Thompson, Mrs. Ingalls and Miss Hall, were the principals, the case has developed some interesting features. The minister, his wife's father and a number of others are doing their best to locate the two women, but have failed in every particular thus far. They believe they are in the city and last night were so confident that they were located that Rev. Mr. Glass appeared at the mayor's office and had a warrant issued for the arrest of his wife and a young man named Wier.

The minister stated that his wife was being harbored at a home near the center of the city and wanted an officer detailed to search the house. Action was deferred until this morning, when it was learned that Mrs. Glass had been at the house, but left on Tuesday. When she left she informed the people at the house that she and her woman companion were going to get jobs as kitchen girls at a hotel in the city. At least a dozen houses have been kept under surveillance by the distracted minister and his friends, but they have been unable to catch even a glimpse of the women.

Rev. Mr. Glass told the mayor that a young man by the name of Wier Wellsville. Their wishes have been obeyed.

This new plant will employ about 50 skilled mechanics, and many now employed by the concern are to come to Wellsville. The industry is one entirely foreign to any now operated in Wellsville.

Arrangements have been practically completed for the remodeling and rebuilding of the Stevenson foundry. For some time the company has been conferring with the Cleveland & Pittsburg railroad officials concerning the construction of a new switch to their proposed new factory. It is possible this will be a branch from the belt line road, but this fact has not been definitely decided upon. That the foundry will be rebuilt there is no doubt. The officials of the company have given up all thought of moving their big plant from Wellsville, and for this the people of the city are justly glad.

PROPER COMPENSATION

An Argument That It Should Be Given for What the Railroad Asks.

To the Editor of the News Review. Please kindly allow us a little space in your paper to enable us to put before the citizens of Wellsville the enormous grant about to be perpetrated by the city council in declaring certain streets vacated in the interest of the railroad company, which is being done against the wishes of the citizens.

Let us consider what this grant is worth from a monetary standpoint. Take Petroleum street, for instance, 32 feet wide and over 1,000 feet long, if divided into 10 lots, each 32x100 feet, worth $800 each, based on prices in the immediate vicinity, or $8,000 for that street alone. Then there are Sixteenth, Seventeenth and Twentieth streets, which being divided into four lots, each 40x100 feet, yield $3,200, making a grant of $11,200 that the city council is about to give the railroad.

Now, if the railroad would go before council and ask it to donate $5,000 it would create quite a howl from the council. But when the railroad asks council to declare streets worth $11,200 vacant, for its use some members of council say: "We must do something for the railroad company," when it is known that the ground lately purchased in the West End and vicinity of Wellsville is the first ground that was the cause of his wife's downfall. They met at Ironville. Wier boarded at the Glass home and worked at the Wellsville tin mill. Glass worked night turn and Wier worked day turn. Although he was suspicious of several happenings at the home during his absence, Glass did not learn for a certainty of anything wrong until yesterday. That Wier did not get a sound flogging at the mill was only because he rushed into the office and barricaded the door. Glass says the mill people are all in sympathy with him and that Wier was immediately discharged. He says a gang of the workmen have decided to tar and feather Wier if they catch him.

Glass, it is said, went home one day last week and found a young man there. His wife introduced the man as Mr. Blackmore, of Beaver Falls. The husband was unsuspecting and said nothing until two days later when he was riding on a street car and the same Mr. Blackmore approached him for his fare. The scene that followed was interesting to the passengers, none of whom knew the cause. The conductor, it is said, has left the city temporarily.

The report is that Wier has left the vicinity and has probably returned to Ironville, where he has another sweetheart. Wier claims that he does not care for Mrs. Glass, it is said.

Chief Wyman is working on the case and will arrest Mrs. Glass if he can find her.

SWALLOWED CENTS AND BECAME ILL

She was placed in the care of Sheriff Brown at Wooster and he notified the Columbiana county authorities. The girl says she swallowed two cents a year ago which she believes are still in her stomach and the physicians think that is the cause of her illness.

THE LACK OF CASH IS EMBARRASSING

Public Safety Board Already Perplexed For Want of Money.

FIRE LIMIT QUESTION UP

The members of the board of public safety woke up to the fact last evening that they are going to have a difficult time running their department until another appropriation is made by council. In several funds they are destitute and the question of how to get out of the trouble is a perplexing one.

According to the new code the board is not permitted to transfer funds from one department to another and Auditor Davidson has announced that he will not deviate from the rule. There are several funds under the control of the safety board that contain more money than will be spent, but the excess cannot be transferred until the next appropriation is made. The total amount of money needed by the board will not reach a very high figure and it is argued that if another appropriation was made for the small amount the cost attached to the legislation would nearly equal the amount needed. It is probable that a meeting of the board and the finance committee of council will be held to devise a plan of getting out of the difficulty.

The board passed upon a number of bills and considered the complaint of John McFadden, who declares that the city is to blame for damage done his property on Walnut street by an overflow of rain onto his sidewalk. The water washed out his cellar and did other damage. He has had the case before the board of service several times and that body did nothing, believing Mr. McFadden to be at fault. Messrs. Dawson and Ogilvie were appointed a committee to investigate the conditions.

Mr. Bullock, of the fire limit committee of council, met with the board and considerable time was consumed in the discussion and consideration of a number of letters received from other cities on the subject. A letter from Akron seemed to strike a popular chord among the members, and it is likely that the advice will be accepted and an ordinance drafted at once to be presented to council at its next regular meeting for passage.

Let representative business men go before council and ask for the passage of an ordinance, and no council will say them nay. All this is accomplished by organization, and without it, work is almost in vain." As he said he was just "filling in," he said no more.

A report of the head bookkeeper of Wellsville for the past thirty years was made, when Toastmaster Cope said that the "Advancement of Wellsville in the Past Ten Years" would be told by Prof. J. L. MacDonald.

"Present your case to your merchant in a businesslike way," said Prof. MacDonald, "then go on about your business and allow the merchant to attend to his business."

"Compare, if you will, the statements of the banks and building and loan associations of Wellsville for the past ten years and you will be able to tell at a glance just how rapidly our little city has been advancing."

"Our mills have doubled their capacity," he said, "and we have three times the potteries here now that we had a decade ago. Whatever we do, do slowly and do well. If we wait possibly another ten years we may have the Belt Road completed, but I hope it will be completed long before then."

"Scraps" was the theme of an interesting toast by Attorney Frank L. Wells. He aimed to make the point clear that to obtain success in any movement, harmony was essential. There is no room in any big movement which is hoped to be made a success for the drone or the person who hesitates to do his share or who attempts to throw cold water on the work of others. Mr. Wells gave a most interesting speech, which was somewhat foreign to any which preceded him.

Justice J. W. Riley, in a manner for which he is noted, closed the speaking by reciting "Parrhasites." Mr. Riley is achieving just fame as an elocutionist, and for his work last night he was warmly applauded.

The banquet itself was a most pleasing affair. Over 100 guests were present, many of whom were ladies. Merchants and their ladies from East Liverpool were present, and a most friendly feeling existed between the visitors and the home merchants. Small tables were scattered about the spacious auditorium of the Wellsville city hall, and about these tables four chairs were placed. Not one table was vacant. The menu, which was prepared by Mrs. Elwood Bunting, equalled if not surpassed anything of the kind ever served in the city before. There were four courses.

Music was furnished during the evening by Woods' orchestra, and at the close of the banquet, dancing followed until 2 o'clock this morning. The association should be congratulated upon their efforts to promote friendship and good will throughout the city, and present indications point to their work being entirely successful.

A NEW INDUSTRY ASSURED WELLSVILLE

Plant Employing 50 Skilled Workers to Be Moved Here—Others in Prospect.

It has been definitely arranged that at least one new industry will be built in Wellsville during the coming summer, and the prospects are favorable for another. The improvement and rebuilding of one of the biggest plants in Wellsville is also to commence soon.

While details of the new proposition to build a new factory in this city cannot be given out at this time, sufficient has been announced by those connected with the improvement to prove that all is about ready to start work on the new plant.

This factory is now located many miles away from Wellsville, and in a northern state. Wellsville people have long been identified with the company now operating this plant, and it is their wish that it be removed to

REV. GLASS SWEARS OUT WARRANTS FOR ARRESTS

He Is Zealously Seeking to Find His Wife and a Millworker Named Wier.

SOME NEW PHASES IN THE UNFORTUNATE CASE

Since the sensational episode on Washington street last Tuesday morning in which Rev. John Glass, of Walker, pastor of an Irondale church, his wife and a young woman known by the names, Miss Thompson, Mrs. Ingalls and Miss Hall, were the principals, the case has developed some interesting features. The minister, his wife's father and a number of others are doing their best to locate the two women, but have failed in every particular thus far. They believe they are in the city and last night were so confident that they were located that Rev. Mr. Glass appeared at the mayor's office and had a warrant issued for the arrest of his wife and a young man named Wier.

The minister stated that his wife was being harbored at a home near the center of the city and wanted an officer detailed to search the house. Action was deferred until this morning, when it was learned that Mrs. Glass had been at the house, but left on Tuesday. When she left she informed the people at the house that she and her woman companion were going to get jobs as kitchen girls at a hotel in the city. At least a dozen houses have been kept under surveillance by the distracted minister and his friends, but they have been unable to catch even a glimpse of the women.

Rev. Mr. Glass told the mayor that a young man by the name of Wier Wellsville. Their wishes have been obeyed.

This new plant will employ about 50 skilled mechanics, and many now employed by the concern are to come to Wellsville. The industry is one entirely foreign to any now operated in Wellsville.

Arrangements have been practically completed for the remodeling and rebuilding of the Stevenson foundry. For some time the company has been constructing of a new switch to their proposed new factory. It is possible this will be a branch from the belt line road, but this fact has not been definitely decided upon. That the foundry will be rebuilt there is no doubt. The officials of the company have given up all thought of moving their big plant from Wellsville, and for this the people of the city are justly glad.

PROPER COMPENSATION

An Argument That It Should Be Given for What the Railroad Asks.

To the Editor of the News Review. Please kindly allow us a little space in your paper to enable us to put before the citizens of Wellsville the enormous grant about to be perpetrated by the city council in declaring certain streets vacated in the interest of the railroad company, which is being done against the wishes of the citizens.

Let us consider what this grant is worth from a monetary standpoint. Take Petroleum street, for instance, 32 feet wide and over 1,000 feet long, if divided into 10 lots, each 32x100 feet, worth $800 each, based on prices in the immediate vicinity, or $8,000 for that street alone. Then there are Sixteenth, Seventeenth and Twentieth streets, which being divided into four lots, each 40x100 feet, yield $3,200, making a grant of $11,200 that the city council is about to give the railroad.

Now, if the railroad would go before council and ask it to donate $5,000 it would create quite a howl from the council. But when the railroad asks council to declare streets worth $11,200 vacant, for its use some members of council say: "We must do something for the railroad company," when it is known that the ground lately purchased in the West End and vicinity of Wellsville is the first ground that was the cause of his wife's downfall. They met at Irondale. Wier boarded at the Glass home and worked at the Wellsville tin mill. Glass worked night turn and Wier worked day turn. Although he was suspicious of several happenings at the home during his absence, Glass did not learn for a certainty of anything wrong until yesterday. That Wier did not get a sound flogging at the mill was only because he rushed into the office and barricaded the door. Glass says the mill people are all in sympathy with him and that Wier was immediately discharged. He says a gang of the workmen have decided to tar and feather Wier if they catch him.

Glass, it is said, went home one day last week and found a young man there. His wife introduced the man as Mr. Blackmore, of Beaver Falls. The husband was unsuspecting and said nothing until two days later when he was riding on a street car and the same Mr. Blackmore approached him for his fare. The scene that followed was interesting to the passengers, none of whom knew the cause. The conductor, it is said, has left the city temporarily.

The report is that Wier has left the vicinity and has probably returned to Irondale, where he has another sweetheart. Wier claims that he does not care for Mrs. Glass, it is said.

Chief Wyman is working on the case and will arrest Mrs. Glass if he can find her.

SWALLOWED CENTS AND BECAME ILL

Young Girl at the County Infirmary Victim of Peculiar Ailment.

Lisbon, April 29.—(Special.)—Olive Wildman, a 16-year-old girl, whose home is on Kensington, has been received at the county infirmary, where she was brought from Wooster by Infirmary Director A. E. Swearingen. She escaped some time ago from a Cleveland institution known as the Girls' refuge, was recaptured and was being taken back to Cleveland when she became violently ill at Wooster and was unable to proceed further.

She was placed in the care of Sheriff Brown at Wooster and he notified the Columbiana county authorities. The girl says she swallowed two cents a year ago which she believes are still in her stomach and the physicians think that is the cause of her illness.

An Enjoyable Party.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Tomkinson gave a pleasant party last evening at their home on Eighth street. A fine musical program was rendered. C. Heath and Mrs. John H. Peake sang several solos and duets in a delightful manner. Mrs. Tomkinson played several piano solos and Mr. Speakman gave violin solos. The guests had a most delightful evening.

Rehearsal Tonight.

The first rehearsal will take place this evening at 7:30 at St. Stephen's church parish house for the opera, "Egypta," to be given at Rock Springs park May 16, 17 and 18. About 450 persons are to take part under the management of Prof. Chenery and the direction of Prof. Stevens, who arrived in town today to look after the production.

Salem Pastor Resigns.

Salem, April 29.—Rev. Ross Matthews, pastor of the First Baptist church here for three years, tendered his resignation at a congregational meeting and it was accepted. Rev. Mr. Matthews goes to Castile, N. Y., where he has accepted a call.

Among the Potteries and Allied Industries

READY TO START.

The new potters' supply plant of Edward P. O'Connor, Jr., is almost ready to start. Steam would have been up yesterday had it not been for a broken pulley wheel that will cause a few days' delay. Another wheel has been ordered from Pittsburgh and is expected here tonight. The new plant is modern in every particular and has ample room for carrying on an extensive business in pottery supplies. The father of Mr. O'Connor carried on a similar business for over 20 years at the spot on Fifth street where his residence now stands. That plant had not one-third the room of the plant built for his son.

The business will be managed by young Mr. O'Connor and it will be his aim to surround himself with the most competent men for the mechanical department to be found in the city. Thomas Doherty, one of the best known ragger makers in this section, has been selected as foreman of the plant and has been working there for several weeks, superintending the installation of the machinery. Mr. Doherty has the reputation of being the best tile maker in this city and as the plant will make a specialty of decorating kiln tiles his services will prove invaluable.

WILL BE PRESERVED.

Hundreds of people are interested in the fate of the fine spring that flows from the lawn on Thompson place, near the Thompson pottery. This spring has supplied the operatives at the Thompson plant and hundreds of people in the neighborhood with pure, sparkling water for a number of years, but has been threatened, as it stands directly in the way of the additional track to be constructed by the C. & P. The spot where the spring bubbled forth from the ground has already been cut away, but by means of troughs the water can yet be obtained. The railroad contractors say that when the new retaining wall is built along the new cut the spring will be as good as ever, a welcome bit of news to the people of the neighborhood.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

The following officers have been elected by the Carrollton local: Harvey Young, president; Hiram Schmeltz, vice president; John Merriam, recording secretary; Edgar Harsa, financial secretary; John Westfall, one per cent secretary; William Gould, inspector; James Scott, gnara; Tom Strain, trustee and statistician; Elmer Stevenson was elected delegate to the national convention to be held at Trenton, N. J., July 5, 1904; F. W. Hall was elected treasurer.

BIG RIVER SHIPMENTS.

Pottery shipments from this city by river have been larger in the past two weeks than for several months. In fact, shipments from the city denote a better condition of the business compared with past months. The boats of the Pittsburgh Packet line in two trips have carried 50 tons of pottery from local manufacturers and the boats tonight will receive big shipments.

FAVOR CHANGE.

An evidence of the popularity of the shop local with the Brotherhood organizations outside of East Liverpool is evidenced in the action of No. 70, at Minerva. The delegates from the local to the Brotherhood convention have been instructed to vote for the proposed change to the shop local from the present branch local system. It is expected that other out-of-town locals will take similar action.

THOMPSON'S BUSY.

There has been no complaint about lack of business from the Thompson plant, in fact work has been going on as usual with about the same volume of business enjoyed for several years. Six glost kilns per week are being made and the yellow ware part of the plant is hardly adequate to keep up with orders.

COUCHMAN AT WORK.

Thomas Couchman, of the glost kiln crew at the Thompson, who was confined to his home for several weeks on account of burns sustained some time ago, has recovered and is at work again. It will be remembered that Mr. Couchman sustained his injuries in trying to extinguish a fire at his home.

POTTERY NOTES.

Joe Bailey has returned to Carrollton after a visit here.

Miss Pearl Boyd, working at Carrollton, has returned to this city.

Local No. 70, of Minerva, will give a dance on the night of May 16.

Will Jennings, kilnman at Vodyrey's, has been seriously ill for several days.

William Cox, kilnman at Laughlin's, has been laid up for a week with an injury to his eye.

Arthur Greene, sagger maker at the Thompson, held the lucky ticket in the last watch club drawing.

A Stitch in the Side.

A "stitch in the side" is the popular and expressive term for a sharp stab felt in the side, an acute spasm, producing pain, like the thrust of a needle, which is felt especially in the intercostal muscles. Probably its simplest form is due to muscular cramp connected with respiration and frequently brought on by violent exercise after a full meal, in which there is a greater accumulation of carbonic acid than can be readily assimilated or carried off. Such slight stitch is often removed by stooping; hence the old time popular remedy was to make the sign of the cross upon the foot.

Such a stitch is also associated with pleurisy, and then it is caused by a stretching of the not uncommon adhesions between two pleuritic surfaces. At other times the source is neuralgia. In any case to persist in muscular exertion when the stitch is severe is to take a great risk.

Credit With Pawnbrokers.

That men can and do establish a line of credit with pawnbrokers is a proposition beyond belief to the man who has been offered only $20 on a watch that cost $75. The fact remains, however, that all pawnbrokers have favored patrons on their books who can always get the amount of money they want upon almost any old thing that takes the shape of jewelry or other "hockable" personal property. A local sport tried to raise $50 on his split second stop watch the other day and was offered $30 less than the value of the case melted. A friend who has an established credit took the same watch to the same pawnbroker and got $75 on it without a question being asked. It was the man, not the watch, that made the loan possible.—Philadelphia Record.

Washing Rugs.

A rug is ordinarily about as hard a thing to wash as a carpet—it's heavy, big and thick. When EASY TASK SOAP is called into service, the rug is scrubbed on the floor with thick white suds—formed by dissolving a bar of EASY TASK. All the dirt and grease vanish. You can get this dirt remover, labor saver, at your grocer's—5 cents a bar.

Prompt Decision.

The secret of getting through work is method. Order, it has been said, is God's first law. Let it be yours. Do not let your work accumulate upon your hands. It is not work that kills, but arrears of work. Work put off is work put on with heavy interest. "Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof." It becomes intolerable if it be laid upon tomorrow.

If I may recommend you three rules for saving time and economizing strength they shall be these: Answer letters, keep appointments, make up your minds. In the affairs of this life a prompt decision is often more important than a right decision. One man makes up his mind and acts, it may be, wrongly, but if so he finds out his mistake, corrects and retrieves it before another man has acted at all. It is possible to waste a great amount of time by thinking, and still more by talking over actions. First thoughts are sometimes wiser than second and generally wiser than third.—Contemporary Review.

Sir Philip Francis at Cards.

Francis, the Sir Philip Francis whom many ingenious critics have, in defiance of probability, insisted on identifying with the author of the letters of Junius, was an inveterate gambler. Cards dominated over the whole Anglo-Indian society of Calcutta in those days, and many a crime inflicted on the unhappy natives had its origin in the losses at the gaming table of their alien rulers.

When in India, it was the habit of Francis to spend every night in this amusement, and he found an able coadjutor at the card table in the wife of his colleagues, Lady Anne Monson, who was reckoned "a very superior whist player." Good fortune generally shone on the plans of Francis. About 1775 he was visited with "an extraordinary run of luck," so marked indeed that he had "actually won a fortune." Rumor, which sometimes exaggerates, went so far as to estimate his gains at 30 lacs of rupees.—Temple Bar.

He Wouldn't Miss Prayer.

When Professor Tucker was "Tutor" Tucker at Bowdoin college the bell rang for prayers at the chapel, as now, very early in the morning, and it was imperative upon tutors and pupils to respond. As a tutor Mr. Tucker was very popular, although very strict, and he was always prompt to take his place at the head of his class at the early morning devotions.

One morning, however, he found his clothing gone and his door nailed while the bell was ringing. Finding a hatchet he soon split the door down, and at the last stroke of the bell appeared, clothed in his shirt and a pair of overalls, barefooted, but with a smile of serenity on his expressive countenance. He took his customary place, and neither then nor afterward were words of complaint heard from him.

Six glost kilns per week are being made and the yellow ware part of the plant is hardly adequate to keep up with orders.

COUCHMAN AT WORK.

Thomas Couchman, of the glost kiln crew at the Thompson, who was confined to his home for several weeks on account of burns sustained some time ago, has recovered and is at work again. It will be remembered that Mr. Couchman sustained his injuries in trying to extinguish a fire at his home.

POTTERY NOTES.

Joe Bailey has returned to Carrollton after a visit here. Miss Pearl Boyd, working at Carrollton, has returned to this city.

Local No. 70, of Minerva, will give a dance on the night of May 16.

Will Jennings, kilnman at Vodrey's, has been seriously ill for several days. William Cox, kilnman at Laughlin's, has been laid up for a week with an injury to his eye.

Arthur Greene, sagger maker at the Thompson, held the lucky ticket in the last watch club drawing.

A Stitch in the Side.

A "stitch in the side" is the popular and expressive term for a sharp stab felt in the side, an acute spasm, producing pain, like the thrust of a needle, which is felt especially in the intercostal muscles. Probably its simplest form is due to muscular cramp connected with respiration and frequently brought on by violent exercise after a full meal, in which there is a greater accumulation of carbonic acid than can be readily assimilated or carried off. Such slight stitch is often removed by stooping; hence the old time popular remedy was to make the sign of the cross upon the foot.

Credit With Pawnbrokers.

That men can and do establish a line of credit with pawnbrokers is a proposition beyond belief to the man who has been offered only $20 on a watch that cost $75. The fact remains, however, that all pawnbrokers have favored patrons on their books who can always get the amount of money they want upon almost any old thing that takes the shape of jewelry or other "hockable" personal property. A local sport tried to raise $50 on his split second stop watch the other day and was offered $30 less than the value of the case melted. A friend who has an established credit took the same watch to the same pawnbroker and got $75 on it without a question being asked. It was the man, not the watch, that made the loan possible.—Philadelphia Record.

Washing Rugs.

A rug is ordinarily about as hard a thing to wash as a carpet—it's heavy, big and thick. When EASY TASK SOAP is called into service, the rug is scrubbed on the floor with thick white suds—formed by dissolving a bar of EASY TASK. All the dirt and grease vanish. You can get this dirt remover, labor saver, at your grocer's—5 cents a bar.

Prompt Decision.

The secret of getting through work is method. Order, it has been said, is God's first law. Let it be yours. Do not let your work accumulate upon your hands. It is not work that kills, but arrears of work. Work put off is work put on with heavy interest. "Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof." It becomes intolerable if it be laid upon tomorrow.

If I may recommend you three rules for saving time and economizing strength they shall be these: Answer letters, keep appointments, make up your minds. In the affairs of this life a prompt decision is often more important than a right decision. One man makes up his mind and acts, it may be, wrongly, but if so he finds out his mistake, corrects and retrieves it before another man has acted at all. It is possible to waste a great amount of time by thinking, and still more by talking over actions. First thoughts are sometimes wiser than second and generally wiser than third.—Contemporary Review.

Sir Philip Francis at Cards.

Francis, the Sir Philip Francis whom many ingenious critics have, in defiance of probability, insisted on identifying with the author of the letters of Junius, was an inveterate gambler. Cards dominated over the whole Anglo-Indian society of Calcutta in those days, and many a crime inflicted on the unhappy natives had its origin in the losses at the gaming table of their alien rulers.

When in India, it was the habit of Francis to spend every night in this amusement, and he found an able coadjutor at the card table in the wife of his colleagues, Lady Anne Monson, who was reckoned "a very superior whist player." Good fortune generally shone on the plans of Francis. About 1775 he was visited with "an extraordinary run of luck," so marked indeed that he had "actually won a fortune." Rumor, which sometimes exaggerates, went so far as to estimate his gains at 30 lacs of rupees.—Temple Bar.

He Wouldn't Miss Prayer.

When Professor Tucker was "Tutor" Tucker at Bowdoin college the bell rang for prayers at the chapel, as now, very early in the morning, and it was imperative upon tutors and pupils to respond. As a tutor Mr. Tucker was very popular, although very strict, and he was always prompt to take his place at the head of his class at the early morning devotions.

One morning, however, he found his clothing gone and his door nailed while the bell was ringing. Finding a hatchet he soon split the door down, and at the last stroke of the bell appeared, clothed in his shirt and a pair of overalls, barefooted, but with a smile of serenity on his expressive countenance. He took his customary place, and neither then nor afterward were words of complaint heard from him.

READY TO START.

The new potters' supply plant of Edward F. O'Connor, Jr., is almost ready to start. Steam would have been up yesterday had it not been for a broken pulley wheel that will cause a few days' delay. Another wheel has been ordered from Pittsburgh and is expected here tonight. The new plant is modern in every particular and has ample room for carrying on an extensive business in pottery supplies. The father of Mr. O'Connor carried on a similar business for over 20 years at the spot on Fifth street where his residence now stands. That plant had not one-third the room of the plant built for his son.

The business will be managed by young Mr. O'Connor and it will be his aim to surround himself with the most competent men for the mechanical department to be found in the city. Thomas Doherty, one of the best known raggers makers in this section, has been selected as foreman of the plant and has been working there for several weeks, superintending the installation of the machinery. Mr. Doherty has the reputation of being the best tile maker in this city and as the plant will make a specialty of decorating kiln tiles his services will prove invaluable.

WILL BE PRESERVED.

Hundreds of people are interested in the fate of the fine spring that flows from the lawn on Thompson place, near the Thompson pottery. This spring has supplied the operatives at the Thompson plant and hundreds of people in the neighborhood with pure, sparkling water for a number of years, but has been threatened, as it stands directly in the way of the additional track to be constructed by the C. & P. The spot where the spring bubbled forth from the ground has already been cut away, but by means of troughs the water can yet be obtained. The railroad contractors say that when the new retaining wall is built along the new cut the spring will be as good as ever, a welcome bit of news to the people of the neighborhood.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

The following officers have been elected by the Carrollton local: Harvey Young, president; Hiram Schmeltzenbach, vice president; John Merrihan, recording secretary; Edgar Harsha, financial secretary; John Westfall, one per cent secretary; William Gould, inspector; James Scott, guard; Tom Strain, trustee and statistician; Elmer Stevenson was elected delegate to the national convention to be held at Trenton, N. J., July 5, 1904; F. W. Hall was elected treasurer.

BIG RIVER SHIPMENTS.

Pottery shipments from this city by river have been larger in the past two weeks than for several months. In fact, shipments from the city denote a better condition of the business compared with past months. The boats of the Pittsburgh Packet line in two trips have carried 50 tons of pottery from local manufacturers and the boats tonight will receive big shipments.

FAVOR CHANGE.

An evidence of the popularity of the shop local with the Brotherhood organizations outside of East Liverpool is evidenced in the action of No. 70, at Minerva. The delegates from the local to the Brotherhood convention have been instructed to vote for the proposed change to the shop local from the present branch local system. It is expected that other out-of-town locals will take similar action.

THOMPSON'S BUSY.

There has been no complaint about lack of business from the Thompson plant, in fact work has been going on as usual with about the same volume of business enjoyed for several years. Six glist kilns per week are being made and the yellow ware part of the plant is hardly adequate to keep up with orders.

COUCHMAN AT WORK.

Thomas Couchman, of the glist kiln crew at the Thompson, who was confined to his home for several weeks on account of burns sustained some time ago, has recovered and is at work again. It will be remembered that Mr. Couchman sustained his injuries in trying to extinguish a fire at his home.

When Professor Tucker was "Tutor" Tucker at Bowdoin college the bell rang for prayers at the chapel, and now, very early in the morning, and it was imperative upon tutors and pupils to respond. As a tutor Mr. Tucker was very popular, although very strict, and he was always prompt to take his place at the head of his class at the early morning devotions.

One morning, however, he found his clothing gone and his door nailed while the bell was ringing. Finding a hatchet he soon split the door down, and at the last stroke of the bell appeared, clothed in his shirt and a pair of overalls, barefooted, but with a smile of serenity on his expressive countenance. He took his customary place, and neither then nor afterward were words of complaint heard from him.

EAST END

NO FATALITIES YESTERDAY IN THE WAR ON DOGS

Battle on Mulberry Street Resulted in Wounding of One Canine But He Escaped.

The war of extermination inaugurated by Officer Fisher on the hundreds of homeless and worthless dogs that infest the East End is exciting greater interest than the Russo-Japanese conflict. There were no fatalities yesterday, but one dog was badly injured and narrowly escaped death on Mulberry street late in the afternoon. The officer slipped up on his intended victim and fired at close range. Thinking the bullet had struck the animal in a vital spot he gave it no further attention and was amazed to see the dog jump up and slink away. The animal retreated in such a way that the officer could not get another shot.

Anything that resembles the sound of a pistol shot attracts scores of people. The pony engine this morning exploded a torpedo on the track and a number of people hurried toward the spot, thinking it was Fisher killing more dogs.

BAD BLAZE AVERTED

Winifred Welch Accidentally Set Fire to His Home But Extinguished the Blaze.

While lighting a fire at his home on Mulberry street yesterday afternoon, Winifred Welch, a conductor on the East Liverpool line, came near causing the destruction of the building. In some way the mantle lamp became ignited and before the flames were noticed had gained considerable headway.

Mr. Welch fought the blaze with desperate energy and succeeded in keeping them from spreading to the other furnishings of the room. The mantle was badly damaged before the flames were conquered.

Clark McCain Injured.

Clark McCain, employed at the McCain stove mill, and a brother of the proprietor, was struck in the face by a flying board yesterday afternoon and suffered a severe cut on the nose and a painful injury to his eye. The board rebounded when it came into contact with a saw and struck McCain with great force. His injuries might have been much more serious.

Neininger Will Build.

Henry Neininger, of Mulberry street, has let the contract for a handsome seven room dwelling house facing Pennsylvania avenue in the Midway addition. The plans were drawn by Walter C. Supplee, who is making quite a reputation as an architect. George Easterday will also build a fine home in that neighborhood.

To Observe Anniversary.

The fifteenth anniversary of the establishment of the Epworth League will be observed at the Erie street Methodist church Tuesday and Wednesday nights of next week. Appropriate programs are being prepared, which includes the installation of Charles Boyce as president of the local organization.

Will Attend the Funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Earle, Misses Lucy, Lida and Wilmer Earle, grandchildren of the late Mrs. John Earle, who died yesterday morning at Sallenville, and Frank Earle, a nephew will attend the funeral services at Sallenville Sunday.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Erie street Methodist church held an interesting meeting at the church yesterday afternoon.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver, of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed by Will Read, Charles T. Larkins, C. G. Anderson, J. D. Holloway, druggists.

TWELVE PAGES.

Loyalty to home trade and home interests was the theme principally dwelt upon by the members of the Merchants' association of Wellsville who spoke at the first annual banquet of that body. The doctrine is one that needs to be zealously preached and rigidly practiced in cities like East Liverpool and Wellsville, if they would continue prosperous and strong. The neighboring city of Pittsburg is always reaching after the trade of the Ohio valley towns. Lately Wheeling has adopted a similar course and at present is making a strenuous effort to put into the coffers of its local merchants money that should properly be expended in the towns where it was earned. Nobody can blame the merchants of any city for reaching out and attracting any trade that they can get, but as Mayor Fogo tersely and truly pointed out, those who are loyal to home merchants are assisting in the advancement of their home city. The cultivation of a friendly spirit, a union of interests among local dealers and a disposition to be satisfied with reasonable profits are all subjects worthy of zealous cultivation, and the business associations of our own city and of Wellsville will no doubt accomplish much good for themselves as well as for the towns whose interests are identical with their own. The gospel of support to home trade needs to be preached and made impressive in East Liverpool as well as in Wellsville, as it is too often the case that those who trade on credit at home go abroad and pay cash to strangers for goods that they could buy here on equally advantageous terms, to say nothing of helping along those who are local taxpayers, supporters of local churches, charities and schools, and who are always the first to be called upon to contribute their money and support to enterprises and projects for the upbuilding and advancement of the community. "Help those who help you and your town" is a motto that no public spirited citizen anywhere ought ever to forget.

As long as the laws of Ohio require that cases of accident and sudden death be investigated by the coroner the laws should be complied with. In some states it has been proposed to abolish the coroner's office and divide his duties. That proposition has neither been taken up nor adopted in Ohio.
Until it is, crime, and responsibility for neglect resulting in violent death ought to be ferreted out by the coroner, as far as lies in his power. There is no reason why East Liverpool and vicinity should be exempt from operations of the law simply because the would cost him more than his fees to

A Chicago normal school professor makes the following remarkable statement: "The press recently criticised high school pupils because they were poor spellers. It was the highest compliment ever paid to them, because it proved that they were in better business." An educator who encourages neglect of the fundamental branches has missed his calling. It is always a fair conclusion that a student who is deficient in one branch is exceedingly likely to be so in another. Slovenly spelling is as inexcusable as inexact arithmetic or bad grammar.

The American government is performing a great work in the Philippines, according to Secretary Taft, and he very properly argues that the government and education of the nation's new wards are not a political issue.
The nation has assumed a grave responsibility which is best met by eliminating politics as far as possible in discharging it.

Speaker Cannon, in spite of his name, is not a noisy man. But when he speaks it is to some purpose. How well the house has learned to appreciate his sterling qualities was shown by the hearty demonstration in his honor yesterday.

The United States is now in full ownership of the Panama canal property.
Assistant Attorneys General Day and Russell have paid the $40,000,000, in the form of a draft on the United States treasury, which is already on its way to New York.

Even the most confirmed pessimist must acknowledge that there is a good deal to be thankful for in the fact that neither the Ohio legislature nor the United States congress is likely to be called in extra session.

Water has proven vastly more deadly than bullets thus far in the Japanese-Russian war. But drowning an enemy disposes of him effectually.

The Fifty-eighth congress in paving the way for the Panama canal has done a great and memorable work.

SOUTH SIDE IN FAVOR OF TAX REFORM LAW

Hon. P. A. Pugh Puts An End to Unfounded Stories Regarding His Political Platform.

Hon. P. A. Pugh, of Gas Valley, arrived in Chester this morning from New Cumberland, where he has been looking after his interests as a candidate for state senator. Mr. Pugh is indignant over a number of reports put in circulation with reference to his attitude in case he should be nominated and elected. When seen by a News Review representative, he said:
"It has been industriously circulated that I am opposed to tax reform for the state of West Virginia, and that I would be against any measure having for its object the revision of the present tax regulations. I want to say now, once for all, that I will favor a tax reform law. Why should I not? I own 200 acres of as good land as there is in the state, and am as much interested in tax reform as any man could possibly be. I have my own ideas about what is needed, and will stand for that if elected to the senate. I am unqualifiedly for tax reform and you are at liberty to make that point as strong as you like.

"Another matter I want to speak about," said Mr. Pugh, "is an unfounded story to the effect that I am of and backed by the Standard Oil company.
This is absurd, and would not be worth noticing were it not for the fear that some citizens of the county who do not know me well might be misled. As a matter of fact, I am standing by myself and I will be found independent of any ties but the welfare of my constituents if I am elected.
I believe these stories were started by my opponents for what effect they might have upon the result of the coming primaries and I hope they will be discredited wherever told."

High School Reception.

A number of Chester young people are making preparations to attend the reception to be given by the graduating class of the New Cumberland high school. The class of 1904 is said to be the best that has completed the course in the New Cumberland schools in a long time. The reception will be held in the high school rooms Friday evening, May 6.

Candidate Here.

Alfred Marland, of New Cumberland, candidate for prosecuting attorney, arrived in Chester this morning, having decided to put in a few days in the north end of the county in the interest of his candidacy. Mr. Marland is a good lawyer, has had years of experience at the bar and will make an excellent official if elected to the position he seeks. He will make a good showing in Chester.

Will Attend Church.

The Odd Fellows lodge of New Cumberland will attend services at the Presbyterian church of that town next Sunday evening. The occasion is the annual memorial exercises, and an appropriate sermon will be preached by Rev. J. S. Hamilton, pastor of the church. Invitations have been sent to thelodges at Chester and Toronto and it is likely there will be a good turnout from both towns.

Contract for Bath House.

The contract for the erection of the bath house at Rock Springs park was let last night to Finley Bros., the Chester contractors. The bid of the firm was $5,000, and the building will be the most complete in this section. According to the specifications the structure is to be 30x60 feet, and work upon its construction will be commenced at once. The entire job must be completed by May 30, and the contractors will be kept busy.

Not Badly Hurt.

The Italian laborer who was slightly injured in a ditch yesterday by a cave-in, is at work today. A small amount of dirt fell on the man and he was not hurt about the body. A falling timber struck the man in the face, breaking his nose. He was otherwise uninjured.

Coming Wedding.

In announcing the coming marriage of Oliver Kirkham to take place tomorrow, an error was made in the name of the bride. The announcement stated he would marry Miss Amy Cunningham, but instead the happy bride will be her sister, Miss Wilda Cuningham.

Delightful Dance.

The 1904 club held a delightful banquet and dance at Bloom's hall last evening. There were about 25 couples present and all had a very nice time.
H. Lewis, of East Liverpool, furnished the music.

TWELVE PAGES.

Loyalty to home trade and home interests was the theme principally dwelt upon by the members of the Merchants' association of Wellsville who spoke at the first annual banquet of that body. The doctrine is one that needs to be zealously preached and rigidly practiced in cities like East Liverpool and Wellsville, if they would continue prosperous and strong. The neighboring city of Pittsburg is always reaching after the trade of the Ohio valley towns. Lately Wheeling has adopted a similar course and at present is making a strenuous effort to put into the coffers of its local merchants money that should properly be expended in the towns where it was earned. Nobody can blame the merchants of any city for reaching out and attracting any trade that they can get, but as Mayor Fogo tersely and truly pointed out, those who are loyal to home merchants are assisting in the advancement of their home city. The cultivation of a friendly spirit, a union of interests among local dealers and a disposition to be satisfied with reasonable profits are all subjects worthy of zealous cultivation, and the business associations of our own city and of Wellsville will no doubt accomplish much good for themselves as well as for the towns whose interests are identical with their own. The gospel of support to home trade needs to be preached and made impressive in East Liverpool as well as in Wellsville, as it is too often the case that those who trade on credit at home go abroad and pay cash to strangers for goods that they could buy here on equally advantageous terms, to say nothing of helping along those who are local taxpayers, supporters of local churches, charities and schools, and who are always the first to be called upon to contribute their money and support to enterprises and projects for the upbuilding and advancement of the community. "Help those who help you and your town" is a motto that no public spirited citizen anywhere ought ever to forget.

As long as the laws of Ohio require that cases of accident and sudden death be investigated by the coroner the laws should be complied with. In some states it has been proposed to abolish the coroner's office and divide his duties. That proposition has neither been taken up nor adopted in Ohio. Until it is, crime, and responsibility for neglect resulting in violent death ought to be ferreted out by the coroner, as far as lies in his power. There is no reason why East Liverpool and vicinity should be exempt from operations of the law simply because the coroner lives so far away that it would cost him more than his fees to come here and hold an inquest.

A Chicago normal school professor makes the following remarkable statement: "The press recently criticised high school pupils because they were poor spellers. It was the highest compliment ever paid to them, because it proved that they were in better business." An educator who encourages neglect of the fundamental branches has missed his calling. It is always a fair conclusion that a student who is deficient in one branch is exceedingly likely to be so in another. Slovenly spelling is as inexcusable as inexact arithmetic or bad grammar.

The American government is performing a great work in the Philippines, according to Secretary Taft, and he very properly argues that the government and education of the nation's new wards are not a political issue. The nation has assumed a grave responsibility which is best met by eliminating politics as far as possible in discharging it.

Speaker Cannon, in spite of his name, is not a noisy man. But when he speaks it is to some purpose. How well the house has learned to appreciate his sterling qualities was shown by the hearty demonstration in his honor yesterday.

The United States is now in full ownership of the Panama canal property. Assistant Attorneys General Day and Russell have paid the $40,000,000, in the form of a draft on the United States treasury, which is already on its way to New York.

Even the most confirmed pessimist must acknowledge that there is a good deal to be thankful for in the fact that neither the Ohio legislature nor the United States congress is likely to be called in extra session.

Water has proven vastly more deadly than bullets thus far in the Japanese-Russian war. But drowning an enemy disposes of him effectually.

The Fifty-eighth congress in paving the way for the Panama canal has done a great and memorable work.

The weather clerk seems to have a grudge against the ball players, as well as against the rest of us.

To the Public!

East Liverpool, Ohio, April 29, 1904.

Mr. Purchaser,

Dear Sir:—We are still after your clothing trade, and we hardly know how we can be contented without it. We have been expecting you in for a look at the spring novelties.

We have the best of Clothing, Hats and Furnishings for men in all kinds of business, and for boys and children of all ages and sizes.

We are sure that we can make it an object for you to make this your clothing store, by giving you better clothes for your money than you can get elsewhere.

We not only say this, but we believe it. Come in and let the quality of our clothes and the fairness of our prices prove our assertion.

We do believe, however, that if you will come in for a look about, that the excellence of our clothes and the reasonableness of our prices will at once convince you that you can secure the best clothes satisfaction here.

Any money you leave with us is always yours until you are perfectly satisfied.

We want you, sir, for a regular patron of our store, and we will do our best in every way to win you and to hold your trade.

As a special favor, we now ask that you make no spring clothing purchases, until after you learn what we are able to do.

Very respectfully yours,

LYMAN RINEHART,

Stevenson Block, 5th St., near Diamond. "Outfitter to Mankind."

It ever purchased, as the rest was donated at various times.

We also notice that some business men of upper Wellsville think that if the railroad company would give the city the Third street wharf it would be a good exchange. We, the citizens of the West End, fail to see where we would be benefited by any such deal. We read of an incident in the Ohio senate when a senator from our own county stated that he was compelled to vote for certain measures against the wishes of his constituents. In the Wellsville council chamber, on Monday night, one councilman stated that he had seen reasons to change his vote and cast it against the wishes of his constituents of the Fourth ward, which he represents.

company will come up in the Lisbon court next Thursday. While the city as a party has no interest in the case, it is possible that Solicitor Boyd will sit through the case to watch the testimony. There is an important question involved in the suit, which is thought may have a bearing on future cases of the kind that may be filed from Wellsville.

EXCITING CHASE IN THE SHEET MILL

Man Accused Another of Attention to His Wife and Started After Him.

One man chasing another about the ponderous machinery in the Wellsville sheet mill yesterday attracted much attention among the hundreds of workmen. One of the workmen accused another man of paying unusual attention to his wife and armed with various articles started after the alleged wrong-doer.

Around the rolls the men ran, through the waste house and other parts of the building went the men, but the pursuer did not catch the man he was after. The chap ran into the mill office and cried to those in the office to close the door. It is likely another chapter will be added to this story later.

NEW PASTOR

Rev. B. M. Price Given a Call to the Second Presbyterian Church, Wellsville.

Rev. B. M. Price, of Creston, O., will be the new pastor of the Wellsville Second Presbyterian church. This was the result of the congregational meeting held at this church Wednesday night.

At this same meeting D. G. Paisley, was elected a deacon.

A Thai Wedding.

In many parts of India Hindoo girls are wedded not with a ring, but with a tacket or thail. At the wedding of the daughter of a leading native, Moulinein, there were present among the numerous guests a Hindoo maiden and her lover, whose suit had not so far progressed to his satisfaction. While the wedding ceremony was in progress the young man suddenly went up to her and before any one suspected what his object was pulled out a thail from his pocket and quietly tied it round her neck. Of course there was a hubbub as well as parental lamentations over this dramatic episode, but so great is the veneration for the thail among Hindoos that no one dared to remove it from the neck of the astonished maiden. All concerned, therefore, repaired to the Marlamme temple, where the act was ratified, and the maid who went to the wedding of her friend fancy free left the scene as the legal wife of a bold and successful husband.—London Telegraph.

Sterling Coin.

The origin of "sterling" as applied to coined money is thus given in "A Short Treatise Touching Sheriffs' Accounts," by Sir Matthew Hale, 1683: "Current coin of the realm is of gold or silver, with an alloy of copper, at least from the time of Henry I., and this alloy gave the denomination of Sterling to those coins."

"Spelman supposeth it to take that name from the Esterlings, who came over and reformed our coin, to that alloy—of this opinion was Camden. Possibly in those times a Penny was called a Sterling, without any other reason than the use of the times, as other names grow, for the old Act of Henry III. tells us that Denarius Anglice Sterlings dicitur (a denarius, or penny, is called in English a Sterling), and because this was the root of the measure of silver coin; therefore all our coin of the same alloy was also called Sterling."

The Old Time Skipper.

Inmates of the wardroom on an American man-of-war often allude to the captain as the old man or the skipper. The latter is not, as many suppose, a slang term, but a sound word, of excellent etymology and valuable as carrying within itself an interesting bit of commercial history. Skipper is simply skipper, and it comes down from a time when every commander was as well part owner of vessel and cargo, or, literally, the skipper. There are still scores of local shipyards along the Atlantic coast, some of them the outgrowth of private yards where the "vessel owners" of years ago built their own ships to carry their own and their neighbors' crops to market.

The Greek Year.

The Greek year consisted of three seasons only. Prometheus enumerates them. "They had no sign," says he, "of winter, of flowery spring, of fruitful summer." In ancient Germany a similar division of the year prevailed, for Tacitus makes the caustic remark that among the Germans winter, spring and summer have a meaning and a name, but to that people the name and blessings of autumn are alike unknown. It is not likely, then, that our Saxon forefathers were acquainted with the last named season, and our very term autumn is an echo of the Roman tongue.—Gentleman's Magazine.

Velocity of Raindrops.

Of course we all know that it would be an utter impossibility for storm clouds to form and rain to fall were it not for the forty odd miles of atmosphere that rises above our heads. But, supposing it were possible for human beings to exist in an atmosphere that only rose to a level with their mouths, and that storm clouds could form in the region outside such a low grade atmosphere, then every raindrop would prove as fatal to earthly creatures as if it were a steel bullet fired from a dynamite gun.—London Nature.

Comfort For the Sheep Stealer.

The prisoner sensibly observed, "I have only this to say, my lord—that it seems rather hard that I should lose my life merely for stealing a sheep." "Prisoner at the bar," replied the judge, "pray understand. You are not going to be hung for stealing a sheep. You are to be deterred from stealing sheep."—A. C. Plowden's "Autobiography of a Police Magistrate."

Japanese Applause.

The Japanese show their appreciation of an actor's playing in a more substantial manner than by merely applauding. They throw various portions of their dress on the stage, and at the end of the performance the favored person claims the money that the donors repurchase them with, the prices for the various articles being fixed rates.

All Things Fitting.

"No," said the lumber dealer, "we don't sell all woods here—only the parts cut directly from the trunk." "And what," asked the customer, "do you do with the limbs?" "Oh!" replied the cheerful dealer, "we send them all to the branch office."—Baltimore News.

She Knew the Reason.

At the dinner table one evening some one remarked that a certain lady had a thin, falsetto voice. Little Maisie was acquainted with the person referred to, and she cried out abruptly: "Oh, I know why! Because she's got a false set of teeth!"

Wise.

"Did Jerrold get anything out of his rich uncle's estate?" "Well, rather; he married the daughter of the attorney for the estate."—Puck.

A Queer Ceylonese Grass.

Lemon grass, known to botanists as Andropogon schaeenanthus and which is unknown outside of Ceylon, and there only in the Kandian district, is in several respects a most remarkable vegetable production. It grows to a height of six or seven feet and has the wonderful property of spontaneous ignition. On the slopes of Mount Ambulawe during the wet season the grand spectacle of these spontaneous conflagrations is frequently seen. At first a single curl of smoke or bright tongue of flame will be noticed. Soon, however, as the water runs down the stalks and mingles with the oil and acids contained in the pith of this curious herb fierce fires burst into view here, there and every place, soon covering the whole mountain in a sheet of flame. The botanists and chemists have not as yet explained why this paradoxical grass ignites when water falls upon its stalks.

The Syrian Bulbul.

The Syrian bulbul (nightingale) has the loveliest voice of all God's creatures and the saddest song ever heard. Shady coverts fringing the Jordan still shelter the bird that "sings darkling." There is a legend that the bulbul sat in the olive tree in the garden of Joseph of Arimathea and the night before the resurrection through the darkness poured out her soul in sorrowing plaint above the still sleeper in the tomb wherein was never man laid. When the first Easter morning broke over the eastern hills the eggs in the nest of the brooding bird sparkled with gold, blue, orange and crimson, and so we color eggs at Easter for a memorial of the lone singer who sang by the holy sepulcher.—"The City of the King," by Mrs. Lew Wallace.

Hamlet at Singapore.

I saw "Hamlet" played and adapted for Malays at Singapore. It was sung instead of spoken, and mostly to English tunes. Hamlet addressed the ghost to the tune of "Her Golden Hair" and killed Polonius to "Listen to the Band." Polonius addressed his son to "That's English, You Know," and, with the king and queen, sang "Mary Was a Housemaid" to other words. The ghost scene included three ghosts, two clowns and a bottle of whisky.

Coral.

The red coral which is used in jewelry and which is known as precious coral is mostly obtained in the Mediterranean, the Barbary coast furnishing the dark red, the vicinity of Sardinia furnishing the yellow, or salmon colored, variety and the coast of Italy the rose pink. It is also found in the Red sea.

Railroads and Hacks.

We don't know what there is about a station that calls for a hack. Every day women who carry market baskets from downtown home and are proud of it send for a hack to take them to the station, though they take nothing with them but a little handbag.—Atchison Globe.

The British Empire.

The British empire occupies about one-fifth of the surface of the habitable globe and consists of the United Kingdom, with its attendant islands, and about forty-three dependencies under separate and independent governments varying in size from Canada, which is thirty times the size of the United Kingdom, to Gibraltar, the area of which is two square miles. Thus the area of the British empire is ninety-eight times that of the United Kingdom, while the area of the self governing colonies alone is nearly sixty times as large as that of the mother country.—Lord Thring in Nineteenth Century.

A Bit of Holmes' Wit.

Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes, the poet and wit, wrote to a committee declining to accept an invitation to deliver a lecture. "I am far from being in good physical health," wrote the doctor, "and I am satisfied that if I were offered a fifty dollar bill after my lecture I should not have strength enough to refuse it."

So far this month, the water works department of Wellsville, has collected about $3,400, which is claimed to be a larger amount than was ever before collected for water taxes during the month of April. There is another day in the month, and it is possible the receipts will amount to over $4,000 before the penalty is attached. The department proposes to live up to its rule to shut off all water May 1, providing the water tax is not paid.

A Settlement Effected.

The prompt settlement of the several cases in court against Mrs. Davies, of Wellsville, saved about 40 people from Wellsville and East Liverpool making a trip to Lisbon this morning. Many subpoenas in this case were served in both cities last night, but at 9 o'clock it was announced that a settlement had been made.

Council Will Meet Again.

Another meeting of the Wellsville council will be held this evening at which time the ordinance granting the Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad company the right to cross several streets in the West End will come up for its third reading and final passage. ### Velocity of Raindrops.

Of course we all know that it would be an utter impossibility for storm clouds to form and rain to fall were it not for the forty odd miles of atmosphere that rises above our heads. But, supposing it were possible for human beings to exist in an atmosphere that only rose to a level with their mouths, and that storm clouds could form in the region outside such a low grade atmosphere, then every raindrop would prove as fatal to earthly creatures as if it were a steel bullet fired from a dynamite gun.—London Nature.

Comfort For the Sheep Stealer.

The prisoner sensibly observed, "I have only this to say, my lord—that it seems rather hard that I should lose my life merely for stealing a sheep." "Prisoner at the bar," replied the judge, "pray understand. You are not going to be hung for stealing a sheep. You are to be hung in order that others may be deterred from stealing sheep."—A. C. Plowden's "Autobiography of a Police Magistrate."

Japanese Applause.

The Japanese show their appreciation of an actor's playing in a more substantial manner than by merely applauding. They throw various portions of their dress on the stage, and at the end of the performance the favored person claims the money that the donors repurchase them with, the prices for the various articles being fixed rates.

All Things Fitting.

"No," said the lumber dealer, "we don't sell all woods here—only the parts cut directly from the trunk." "And what," asked the customer, "do you do with the limbs?" "Oh!" replied the cheerful dealer, "we send them all to the branch office."—Baltimore News.

She Knew the Reason.

At the dinner table one evening some one remarked that a certain lady had a thin, falsetto voice. Little Maizie was acquainted with the person referred to, and she cried out abruptly: "Oh, I know why! Because she's got a false set of teeth!"

Wise.

"Did Jerrold get anything out of his rich uncle's estate?" "Well, rather; he married the daughter of the attorney for the estate."—Puck.

A Queer Ceylonese Grass.

Lemon grass, known to botanists as Andropogon schaeenanthus and which is unknown outside of Ceylon, and there only in the Kandian district, is in several respects a most remarkable vegetable production. It grows to a height of six or seven feet and has the wonderful property of spontaneous ignition. On the slopes of Mount Ambulawe during the wet season the grand spectacle of these spontaneous conflagrations is frequently seen. At first a single curl of smoke or bright tongue of flame will be noticed. Soon, however, as the water runs down the stalks and mingles with the oil and acids contained in the pith of this curious herb fierce fires burst into view here, there and every place, soon covering the whole mountain in a sheet of flame. The botanists and chemists have not as yet explained why this paradoxical grass ignites when water falls upon its stalks.

The Syrian Bulbul.

The Syrian bulbul (nightingale) has the loveliest voice of all God's creatures and the saddest song ever heard. Shady coverts fringing the Jordan still shelter the bird that "sings darkling." There is a legend that the bulbul sat in the olive tree in the garden of Joseph of Arimathea and the night before the resurrection through the darkness poured out her soul in sorrowing plaint above the still sleeper in the tomb wherein was never man laid. When the first Easter morning broke over the eastern hills the eggs in the nest of the brooding bird sparkled with gold, blue, orange and crimson, and so we color eggs at Easter for a memorial of the lone singer who sang by the holy sepulcher.—The City of the King, by Mrs. Lew Wallace.

Hamlet at Singapore.

I saw "Hamlet" played and adapted for Malays at Singapore. It was sung instead of spoken, and mostly to English tunes. Hamlet addressed the ghost to the tune of "Her Golden Hair" and killed Polonius to "Listen to the Band." Polonius addressed his son to "That's English, You Know," and, with the king and queen, sang "Mary Was a Housemaid" to other words. The ghost scene included three ghosts, two clowns and a bottle of whisky.

Coral.

The red coral which is used in jewelry and which is known as precious coral is mostly obtained in the Mediterranean, the Barbary coast furnishing the dark red, the vicinity of Sardinia furnishing the yellow, or salmon colored, variety and the coast of Italy the rose pink. It is also found in the Red sea.

Railroads and Hacks.

We don't know what there is about a station that calls for a hack. Every day women who carry market baskets from downtown home and are proud of it send for a hack to take them to the station, though they take nothing with them but a little handbag.—Aitchison Globe.

He Asked.

Papa (severely)—Did you ask mamma if you could have that apple? Three-Year-Old—Yes, sir. Papa—Be careful now. I'll ask mamma. Three-Year-Old—Truly, papa, I asked her, but she said I couldn't have it.

Reassured.

Sick Man—Am I to take all that medicine? Wife—Yes; all of it. Sick Man—There's enough in that bottle to kill a donkey. Wife—No, there isn't, John, or the doctor wouldn't have prescribed it.

Adversity is the only balance to weigh friends.—Plutarch.

it ever purchased, as the rest was donated at various times.

We also notice that some business men of upper Wellsville think that if the railroad company would give the city the Third street wharf it would be a good exchange. We, the citizens of the West End, fail to see where we would be benefited by any such deal. We read of an incident in the Ohio senate when a senator from our own county stated that he was compelled to vote for certain measures against the wishes of his constituents. In the Wellsville council chamber, on Monday night, one councilman stated that he had been favorable to the people but had seen reasons to change his vote and cast it against the wishes of his constituents of the Fourth ward, which he represents.

company will come up in the Lisbon court next Thursday. While the city as a party has no interest in the case, it is possible that Solicitor Boyd will sit through the case to watch the testimony. There is an important question involved in the suit, which is thought may have a bearing on future cases of the kind that may be filed from Wellsville.

EXCITING CHASE IN THE SHEET MILL

Man Accused Another of Attention to His Wife and Started After Him.

One man chasing another about the ponderous machinery in the Wellsville sheet mill yesterday attracted much attention among the hundreds of workmen. One of the workmen accused another man of paying unusual attention to his wife and armed with various articles started after the alleged wrong-doer.

Around the rolls the men ran, through the ware house and other parts of the building went the men, but the pursuer did not catch the man he was after. The chap ran into the mill office and cried to those in the office to close the door. It is likely another chapter will be added to this story later.

NEW PASTOR

Rev. B. M. Price Given a Call to the Second Presbyterian Church, Wellsville.

Rev. B. M. Price, of Creston, O., will be the new pastor of the Wellsville Second Presbyterian church. This was the result of the congregational meeting held at this church Wednesday night.

Mr. Price is a member of Steubenville presbytery and is one of the last ministers to preach a trial sermon at this church. He will assume his charge soon.

At this same meeting D. G. Paisley, was elected a deacon.

J. B. Gillespie, traveling freight agent of the Detroit & Cleveland Navigation company, and also two other companies operating on the upper lakes, was in Wellsville yesterday on business. He also spent some time in East Liverpool.

Burton-Smith.

Miss Lottie A. Burton and Charles A. Smith were married Wednesday evening by Rev. Dr. M. B. Pratt at the parsonage of the First Methodist church. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Smith and Albert Carman. The groom is employed at the Standard pottery and he and Mrs. Smith have many friends in the city.

A Thai Wedding.

In many parts of India Hindoo girls go wedded not with a ring, but with a tacket or thail. At the wedding of the daughter of a leading native, Moulinein, there were present among the numerous guests a Hindoo maiden and her lover, whose suit had not so far progressed to his satisfaction. While the wedding ceremony was in progress the young man suddenly went up to her and before any one suspected what his object was pulled out a thail from his pocket and quietly tied it round her neck. Of course there was a hubbub as well as parental lamentations over this dramatic episode, but so great is the veneration for the thail among Hindoos that no one dared to remove it from the neck of the astonished maiden. All concerned, therefore, repaired to the Marriamne temple, where the act was ratified, and the maid who went to the wedding of her friend fancy free left the scene as the legal wife of a bold and successful husband.—London Telegraph.

Sterling Coin.

The origin of "sterling" as applied to coined money is thus given in "A Short Treatise Touching Sheriffs' Accounts," by Sir Matthew Hale, 1683: "Current coin of the realm is of gold or silver, with an alloy of copper, at least from the time of Henry I., and this alloy gave the denomination of Sterling to those coins.

"Spelman supposeth it to take that name from the Esterlings, who came over and reformed our coin, to that alloy—of this opinion was Camden. Possibly in those times a Penny was called a Sterling, without any other reason than the use of the times, as other names grow, for the old Act of Henry III. tells us that Denarius Anglie Sterlingus dicitur (a denarius, or penny, is called in English a Sterling), and because this was the root of the measure of silver coin; therefore all our coin of the same alloy was also called Sterling."

The Old Time Skipper.

Inmates of the wardroom on an American man-of-war often allude to the captain as the old man or the skipper. The latter is not, as many suppose, a slang term, but a sound word, of excellent etymology and valuable as carrying within itself an interesting bit of commercial history. Skipper is simply shipper, and it comes down from a time when every commander was as well part owner of vessel and cargo, or, literally, the shipper. There are still scores of local shippers along the Atlantic coast, some of them the outgrowth of private yards where the "vessel owners" of years ago built their own ships to carry their own and their neighbors' crops to market.

The Greek Year.

The Greek year consisted of three seasons only. Prometheus enumerates them. "They had no sign," says he, "of winter, of flowery spring, of fruitful summer." In ancient Germany a similar division of the year prevailed, for Tacitus makes the caustic remark that among the Germans winter, spring and summer have a meaning and a name, but to that people the name and blessings of autumn are alike unknown. It is not likely, then, that our Saxon forefathers were acquainted with the last named season, and our very term autumn is an echo of the Roman tongue.—Gentleman's Magazine.

Excellent Bowling Done During the Season—Powell Has the Best Average.

The Imperial Bowling league made an excellent record during the season just closed. John W. Williams made the highest score, 225, and Powell and Litten were close seconds with 224. The record, carefully compiled, follows:

	Games Bowled	Total Pins	Ave.

Windsors vs. Sluggers.

The Windsor Jrs. yesterday afternoon played the Jesse's Field Sluggers and beat them by a score of 26 to 6. The batteries were Watkins and Robbins and A. Watkins and Townley. The Windsors stand ready to play any 13-year-old team in the city. The captain is George Watkins, 102 Fenton street. The team lines up as follows: Robbins, catcher; G. Watkins, pitcher; Wilson, short; Dick Borne, first; Harry Mountford, second; Harry Erbstein, third; Harry Beatty, left; Perry Bidle, middle; Harry Shaw, right; E. Hodgkins, Wm. Elstein and Peter Mullin, subs.

Ready for Twelve-Year-Olds.

The Leaders are prepared to play any 12-year-old team in the city. They want especially to meet the Franklin A. C. or the Jeffersons. Answers may be sent to Harry Erbstein, manager, corner St. John and Spring streets. The team is composed of Gibson, catcher; A. Watkins, pitcher; T. Hanlon, short; W. Townley, first; Ned Greenwood, second; Feustler, third; A. Childs, middle; M. Barlow, right; W. Connelly, left; Haffes, Wendland and George Boone, subs. The club has ordered blue uniforms.

Challenge Issued.

The Eagle Athletic club issue a challenge to any 14-year-old ball team in the city, the answer to be published in the News Review. The team is managed by George Grafton. The captain is Clarence Kimble, and the lineup as follows: John Canavan, catcher; Harry Wolf, pitcher; Alva Lamborn, short; George Grafton, first; John McGill, second; Clarence Kimble, third; Carl Pennybaker, left; Walter Smith, middle; Allen Dawson, right.

SPORTING MISCELLANY.

Chief Zimmer has made quite a hit as an umpire in the east. He says: "I like my new work and enjoy it."

They have already a name for Dillon, the first baseman from California, whom Hanlon has made captain of the team. He is called "Big Boy."

"Bucky" Veil and "Jack" Pfeister, the pitchers who were released by the Pirates, have departed for their homes, Veil going to Williamsport and Pfeister to Cincinnati.

Charley Pittinger, who was on the market a year or so ago, is now Boston's winning pitcher and also one of the National League stars. He has shut out the Phillies twice.

Ban Johnson may rescind his order limiting players on a team to sixteen, in so far as the Washington club is concerned, on account of the peculiar tangle into which the club got at the start of the season.

The Washington club will be strengthened materially as quickly as possible. A trade will probably be made to obtain the services of Isebel, first baseman of the White Stockings, and if his services are obtained he will probably supplant "Jake" Stahl. "Lefty" Davis is also expected to join the Senators at once.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling noise in the ears, the hearing is lost, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and hearing will be destroyed forever; and cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which cannot be cured by local applications.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

The Widow in India.

No institution of India has been so exaggerated as that of the widow. She really occupies a place analogous to our antique old maid, now so fast disappearing in the girl bachelor. The aged widow who has remained true to her principles is regarded as a holy being who has withstood a thousand temptations and persecutions and commands the respect of all persons. She is the mother of all the children in the neighborhood, the help-mate of all the neighbors. At evening they flock around to hear her repeat the ancient legends, the stories of Sita and Savitri, Draupida, or sing the songs of Mira Bai. She is in great demand when cooking is needed for a sacred feast. She teaches the little ones their first hymns and prayers. She nurses the sick, comforts the dying. She believes herself to be bound to her husband for everlasting time through all births and deaths. The momentary separation here is but one shade of her marriage, an unknowable mystery of destiny. It breaks no tie.—Everybody's Magazine.

Helping a Composer of Music.

Haley was somewhat of a pedant in writing music. He worked very slowly and deliberately and made hundreds of changes before he was satisfied. When ideas would not come at his bidding he employed a very singular means to help his genius along. A kettle filled with water was put over a fire, and the monotonous singing of the boiling water acted as a wonderful stimulant on his imagination. While composing, his brother, Leon Haley, was always with him, decorating the verses of the text and adding and scratching syllables wherever it was necessary. For this reason he was called "text surgeon" among his friends. Leon Haley was by no means a prepossessing man, and the poet Heine is responsible for the following description of him: "He looks as if his brother had composed him."

Blunders by Novelists.

Novelists, even of eminence, are prone to make blunders. Sir Walter Besant, in "For Faith and Freedom," wrote after the Etkins had settled in Providence, "Barnaby soon grew tired of this quiet life and went on board a steamer bound for England, promising that we should hear from him." This was in 1680 or 1687, and the first steamer from America to this country did not reach Liverpool till July, 1819. Wilkie Collins also made numerous amazing blunders. In "The Duel in Herne Wood" he makes the story open with the receipt of a telegram, and the period is 1817, when twenty years had to elapse before the first telegraphic wire was laid. Three of the characters also talk of "taking the express train to London" in defiance of the fact that the first railway to London was not opened till 1825.

Nelson's Mishap.

This is an entry from the journal of the surgeon of the British warship Theseus (the dates are from July and August, 1797): "July 24 and 25—Admiral Nelson. Compound fracture of the right arm by a musket ball passing through a little above the elbow, an artery divided, the arm was immediately amputated and the following given him: R Opi gr ij. ft. Pil. statim. s. etc. 23 July—Rested pretty well and quite easy. Tea, soup and sago. Lemonade and Tamarind Drink. 31 July—One of the ligatures came away; looks well. 1 August—Continued getting well very fast, stump looked well, no bad symptoms, sore reduced to the size of a shilling."

Smuggler's Book.

One of the devices of the smuggler is to bring in rings, watches and other compact articles of value concealed in books. A thick, innocent looking volume is selected for the purpose, and a hole is hollowed out in the center large enough to receive the smuggled goods. The book is then closed and tied up. Its weight offers no clew to the presence of the valuables, even if the inspector should take it in his hand, and a book is of course likely to pass muster even with the most careful customs agents.

Rode to a Sure Death.

Jacques de Chastel, bishop of Soissons, had accompanied Louis IX. (St. Louis) on the African crusade and, finding that nothing had been accomplished and that the army was about to return in disgrace to France, refused to go, took leave of his friends partook of the sacrament, mounted his horse fully equipped for battle and, in sight of the whole army, charged alone into the Saracen camp, where he was at once cut to pieces.

A Discard.

He-Ha! Absurd things those "Battle-dore Ballads." Eh! What? She—I'm sorry you think so—my sister wrote them! He—Er—of course, I don't mean the words—they're ripping! I mean the music—poor stuff—spoils words—composer ought to be kicked—who wrote it? She—I did! (Awkward silence).—Punch.

Sister's Queer Actions.

Little Johnny—I guess sister doesn't care much for that young man that's after her now. Mother—I should hope not. Little Johnny—Of course she doesn't, 'cause she burns every one of his letters just as soon as she reads 'em.

Nothing Serious.

The Heirress—And I've been introduced to quite a number of the European nobility. Her Friend—Thinking of marrying any of them? The Heirress—Oh, no. I don't intend to buy a title. I'm merely shopping.—Puck.

When you bury animosity do not set up a headstone over its grave.—Dickens.

Queen Bess' Wardrobe.

Royal annals have never recorded a more varied and extensive wardrobe than that which belonged to the "virgin queen." Even at the age of sixty-eight, when she might be supposed to have outlived her youthful vapid, she possessed 99 complete official costumes, 102 French gowns, 100 robes with trains and 67 without, 126 antique dresses, 136 bodices, 125 tunics, not to mention such trifles as 96 mantles, 85 dressing gowns and 27 fans.

It is possible that she had an ugly foot, for she possessed only nine pairs of shoes, which, considering her extravagances in other articles of apparel, must have some meaning. At her death 3,000 articles were found duly catalogued in her wardrobe which had adorned her proud person.

The Effect of Punctuation.

The following lines, found in an old book, improbable as they may seem on first reading, lose all their improbability by inserting semicolons after the words in italics:

I saw a cloud begin with ivy round
I saw a sturdy oak creep on the ground
I saw an ant swallow up a whale
I saw the boiling sea brimful of ale
I saw a vital glass fifteen yards deep
I saw a well full of man's tears that weep
I saw a man's eyes all in a flame of fire
I saw a house high as the moon or higher
I saw the radiant sun even at midnight
I saw a man who saw this wondrous sight.

—Pathfinder.

Maple Sugar.

It is said that the first sugar ever made in Vermont was made in Bennington in March, 1763, near the log cabin of Captain Samuel Robinson, the first settler of the town, who came from Hardwick, Mass. The sap was caught in short logs hollowed that held about a gallon. Many pounds of sugar were made and a liquor cask full of sirup.

A Sudden Question.

Professor Jowett was at a dinner in London. He said to a young man who was one of the guests, "What was the saddest event in history?" The young man, much taken aback, stammered out, "Robert Elsmere." "No," said the master, regarding him compassionately, "it was the death of Falstaff."

AT THE THEATER

Harry Leighton, who has starred successfully for several seasons in Daniel Frohman's successes, "The Prisoner of Zenda," "Rupert of Hentzau," etc., is to be seen tonight at the Grand as "Othello" in the Shakespearean production of that name, and he will enjoy the distinction of being the only American actor who will portray this role throughout the country in this a purely Shakespearean season. Miss Augusta True, who has scored successes in "The Prisoner of Zenda," "As You Like It" and other notable plays, will be the "Desdemona" of the cast.

Reports from other cities indicate that Paul Gilmore has scored very heavily in the role of Lord "Jack" Lumley in "The Mummy and the Humming Bird," formerly played by Sir Charles Wyndham and John Drew. With all its sharp satire and pretty humor, this modern and high-class comedy, which by the way is to be seen in this city very soon, is said to be full of pathetic heart interest in its story. At the Grand soon.

Setting Her Right.

Noah Webster, the learned compiler of the well known dictionary, was an unconventional man who loved his unconventional friends, but his wife was a stickler for propriety. Once, says the story, the good lady left home on what was supposed to be a prolonged visit, but some interference caused her to return unexpectedly, and she found her husband in his shirt sleeves, holding carnival over strong waters in company with a number of friends also in shirt sleeves. The shocked lady gazed at this disreputable gathering for a moment in silence. Then she said, "Well, I am surprised!" "No, my dear," said the lexicographer mildly, "I am surprised. You are astonished."

Bait.

Izaak Walton is the patron saint of all good fishermen. Here is his advice as to bait: "Let your bait be as big a red worm as you can find, without a knot. Get a pint or a quart of them in an evening in garden walks or chalky commons after a shower of rain, and put them with clean moss well washed and picked and the water squeezed out of the moss as dry as you can into an earthen pot or pipkin set dry, and change the moss fresh every three or four days for three weeks or a month together. Then your bait will be at the best, for it will be clear and lively."

Strange Provision of Guardianship.

The following is a literal transcript of the second clause of a will filed and probated in a Wisconsin county a few years since: "I hereby commit the guardianship of all my children until they shall respectively attain the age of twenty-one years unto my said wife during her life and from and after her decease unto my much esteemed friend, —, his executors and assigns."—Green Bag.

Agreed.

"I'd hate to feel," she said, "that I was the wife of a man who had bought me simply for my beauty."
"Yes," her friend replied. "I don't blame you. Being married to a blind man would be awfully disagreeable. I should think."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Windsors vs. Sluggers.

The Windsor Jrs. yesterday afternoon played the Jesse's Field Sluggers and beat them by a score of 26 to 6. The batteries were Watkins and Robbins and A. Watkins and Townley. The Windsors stand ready to play any 12-year-old team in the city. The captain is George Watkins, 102 Fenton street. The team lines up as follows: Robbins, catcher; G. Watkins, pitcher; Wilson, short; Dick Borne, first; Harry Mountford, second; Harry Erbstein, third; Harry Beatty, left; Perry Bidle, middle; Harry Shaw, right; E. Hodgkins, Wm. Erbstein and Peter Mullin, subs.

Ready for Twelve-Year-Olds.

The Leaders are prepared to play any 12-year-old team in the city. They want especially to meet the Franklin A. C. or the Jeffersons. Answers may be sent to Harry Erbstein, manager, corner St. John and Spring streets. The team is composed of Gibson, catcher; Al Watkins, pitcher; T. Hanlon, short; W. Townley, first; Ned Greenwood, second; Feustler, third; A. Childs, middle; M. Barlow, right; W. Connelly, left; Haffes, Wendland and George Boone, subs. The club has ordered blue uniforms.

Challenge issued.

The Eagle Athletic club issue a challenge to any 14-year-old ball team in the city, the answer to be published in the News Review. The team is managed by George Grafton. The captain is Clarence Kimble, and the lineup as follows: John Caravan, catcher; Harry Wolf, pitcher; Alvin Lamborn, short; George Grafton, first; John McGill, second; Clarence Kimble, third; Carl Pennybaker, left; Walter Smith, middle; Allen Dawson, right.

SPORTING MISCELLANY.

Chief Zimmer has made quite a hit as an umpire in the east. He says: "I like my new work and enjoy it."

They have already a name for Dillon, the first baseman from California, whom Hanlon has made captain of the team. He is called "Big Boy."

"Bucky" Veil and "Jack" Pfeister, the pitchers who were released by the Pirates, have departed for their homes. Veil going to Williamsport and Pfeister to Cincinnati.

Charley Pittinger, who was on the market a year or so ago, is now Boston's winning pitcher and also one of the National League stars. He has shut out the Phillies twice.

Ban Johnson may recind his order limiting players on a team to sixteen, in so far as the Washington club is concerned, on account of the peculiar tangle into which the club got at the start of the season.

The Washington club will be strengthened materially as quickly as possible. A trade will probably be made to obtain the services of Isbell, first baseman of the White Stockings, and if his services are obtained he will probably supplant "Jake" Stahl.

"Lefty" Davis is also expected to join the Senators at once.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; unless cases of deafness are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Sent for circulars, free.

Sold by Druggists. F. J. CLENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

AT THE THEATER

Harry Leighton, who has starred successfully for several seasons in Daniel Frohman's successes, "The Prisoner of Zenda," "Rupert of Hentzau," etc., is to be seen tonight at the Grand as "Othello" in the Shakespearean production of that name, and he will enjoy the distinction of being the only American actor who will portray this role throughout the country in this purely Shakespearean season. Miss Augusta Time, who has scored successes in "The Prisoner of Zenda," "As You Like It" and other notable plays, will be the "Desdemona" of the cast.

Reports from other cities indicate that Paul Gilmore has scored very heavily in the role of Lord "Jack" Lumley in "The Mummy and the Humming Bird," formerly played by Sir Charles Wyndham and John Drew. With all its sharp satire and pretty humor, this modern and high-class comedy, which by the way is to be seen in this city very soon, is said to be full of pathetic heart interest in its story. At the Grand soon.

Setting Her Right.

Noah Webster, the learned compiler of the well known dictionary, was an unconventional man who loved his unconventional friends, but his wife was a stickler for propriety. Once, says the Idler, the good lady left home on what was supposed to be a prolonged visit, but some interference caused her to return unexpectedly, and she found her husband in his shirt sleeves, holding carnival over strong waters in company with a number of friends also in shirt sleeves. The shocked lady gazed at this disreputable gathering for a moment in silence. Then she said, "Well, I am surprised!" "No, my dear," said the lexicographer mildly, "I am surprised. You are astonished."

Bait.

Izaak Walton is the patron saint of all good fishermen. Here is his advice as to bait: "Let your bait be as big a red worm as you can find, without a knot. Get a pint or a quart of them in an evening in garden walks or chalky commons after a shower of rain, and put them with clean moss well washed and picked and the water squeezed out of the moss as dry as you can into an earthen pot or pipkin set dry, and change the moss fresh every three or four days for three weeks or a month together. Then your bait will be at the best, for it will be clear and lively."

Strange Provision of Guardianship.
The following is a literal transcript of the second clause of a will filed and probated in a Wisconsin county a few years since: "I hereby commit the guardianship of all my children until they shall respectively attain the age of twenty-one years unto my said wife during her life and from and after her decease unto my much esteemed friend, —, his executors and assigns."—Green Bag.

Agreed.

"I'd hate to feel," she said, "that I was the wife of a man who had bought me simply for my beauty."
"Yes," her friend replied, "I don't blame you. Being married to a blind man would be awfully disagreeable, I should think."—Chicago Record-Herald.

The Imperial Bowling league made an excellent record during the season just closed. John W. Williams made the highest score, 225, and Powell and Litten were close seconds with 224. The record, carefully compiled, follows:

	Games Bowled.	Total Pins.	Ave.

Windsors vs. Sluggers.

The Windsor Jrs. yesterday afternoon played the Jesse's Field Sluggers and beat them by a score of 26 to 6. The batteries were Watkins and Robbins and A. Watkins and Townley. The Windsors stand ready to play any 13-year-old team in the city. The captain is George Watkins, 102 Fenelon street. The team lines up as follows: Robbins, catcher; G. Watkins, pitcher; Wilson, short; Dick Borne, first; Harry Mountford, second; Harry Erbstein, third; Harry Beatty, left; Perry Bidle, middle; Harry Shaw, right; E. Hodgkins, Wm. Ebstein and Peter Mullin, subs.

Ready for Twelve-Year-Olds.

The Leaders are prepared to play any 12-year-team in the city. They want especially to meet the Franklin A. C. or the Jeffersons. Answers may be sent to Harry Erbstein, manager, corner St. John and Spring streets. The team is composed of Gibson, catcher; Al Watkins, pitcher; T. Hanlon, short; W. Townley, first; Ned Greenwood, second; Feustler, third; A. Childs, middle; M. Barlow, right; W. Connelly, left; Hailes, Wendland and George Boone, subs. The club has ordered blue uniforms.

Challenge Issued.

The Eagle Athletic club issue a challenge to any 14-year-old ball team in the city, the answer to be published in the News Review. The team is managed by George Grafton. The captain is Clarence Kimble, and the lineup as follows: John Caravan, catcher; Harry Wolf, pitcher; Alva Lamborn, short; George Grafton, first; John McGill, second; Clarence Kimble, third; Carl Pennybaker, left; Walter Smith, middle; Allen Dawson, right.

SPORTING MISCELLANY.

Chief Zimmer has made quite a hit as an umpire in the east. He says: "I like my new work and enjoy it."

They have already a name for Dillon, the first baseman from California, whom Hanlon has made captain of the team. He is called "Big Boy."

"Bucky" Veil and "Jack" Pfeister, the pitchers who were released by the Pirates, have departed for their homes, Veil going to Williamsport and Pfeister to Cincinnati.

Charley Pittinger, who was on the market a year or so ago, is now Boston's winning pitcher and also one of the National League stars. He has shut out the Phillies twice.

Ban Johnson may rescind his order limiting players on a team to sixteen, in so far as the Washington club is concerned, on account of the peculiar tangle into which the club got at the start of the season.

The Washington club will be strengthened materially as quickly as possible. A trade will probably be made to obtain the services of Isbell, first baseman of the White Stockings, and if his services are obtained he will probably supplant "Jake" Stahl. "Lefty" Davis is also expected to join the Senators at once.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the hearing will be destroyed forever; the cause of deafness is caused by Catarrh, which cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Sent for circulars, free.

The Widow in India.

No institution of India has been so exaggerated as that of the widow. She really occupies a place analogous to our antique old maid, now so fast disappearing in the girl bachelor. The aged widow who has remained true to her principles is regarded as a holy being who has withstood a thousand temptations and persecutions and commands the respect of a saint from all persons. She is the mother of all the children in the neighborhood, the help-mate of all the neighbors. At evening they flock around to hear her repeat the ancient legends, the stories of Sita and Savitri, Draupdia, or sing the songs of Mira Bai. She is in great demand when cooking is needed for a sacred feast. She teaches the little ones their first hymns and prayers. She nurses the sick, comforts the dying. She believes herself to be bound to her husband for everlasting time through all births and deaths. The momentary separation here is but one shade of her marriage, an unknowable mystery of destiny. It breaks no tie.—Everybody's Magazine.

Helping a Composer of Music.

Haley was somewhat of a pedant in writing music. He worked very slowly and deliberately and made hundreds of changes before he was satisfied. When ideas would not come at his bidding he employed a very singular means to help his genius along. A kettle filled with water was put over a fire, and the monotonous singing of the boiling water acted as a wonderful stimulant on his imagination. While composing, his brother, Leon Haley, was always with him, doctoring the verses of the text and adding and scratching syllables wherever it was necessary. For this reason he was called "text surgeon" among his friends. Leon Haley was by no means a prepossessing man, and the poet Heine is responsible for the following description of him: "He looks as if his brother had composed him."

Blunders by Novelists.

Novelists, even of eminence, are prone to make blunders. Sir Walter Besant, in "For Faith and Freedom," wrote after the Eykins had settled in Providence, "Barnaby soon grew tired of this quiet life and went on board a steamer bound for England, promising that we should hear from him." This was in 1686 or 1687, and the first steamer from America to this country did not reach Liverpool till July, 1819. Wilkie Collins also made numerous amazing blunders. In "The Duel in Herve Wood" he makes the story open with the receipt of a telegram, and the period is 1817, when twenty years had to elapse before the first telegraphic wire was laid. Three of the characters also talk of "taking the express train to London" in defiance of the fact that the first railway to London was not opened till 1825.

Nelson's Mishap.

This is an entry from the journal of the surgeon of the British warship Theseus (the dates are from July and August, 1797): "July 24 and 25—Admiral Nelson. Compound fracture of the right arm by a musket ball passing through a little above the elbow, an artery divided, the arm was immediately amputated and the following given him: R Opil gr ij. ft. Pil statim. s., etc. 25 July—Rested pretty well and quite easy. Tea, soup and sago. Lemonade and Tamarind Drink. 31 July—One of the ligatures came away; looks well. 1 August—Continued getting well very fast, stump looked well, no bad symptoms, sore reduced to the size of a shilling."

Smuggler's Book.

One of the devices of the smuggler is to bring in rings, watches and other compact articles of value concealed in books. A thick, innocent looking volume is selected for the purpose, and a hole is hollowed out in the center large enough to receive the smuggled goods. The book is then closed and tied up. Its weight offers no clew to the presence of the valuables, even if the inspector should take it in his hand, and a book is of course likely to pass muster even with the most careful customs agents.

Rode to a Sure Death.

Jacques de Chastel, bishop of Soissons, had accompanied Louis IX. (St. Louis) on the African crusade and, finding that nothing had been accomplished and that the army was about to return in disgrace to France, refused to go, took leave of his friends partook of the sacrament, mounted his horse fully equipped for battle and, in sight of the whole army, charged alone into the Saracen camp, where he was at once cut to pieces.

A Discard.

He—Ha! Absurd things those "Battledore Ballads." Eh! What? She—I'm sorry you think so—my sister wrote them! He—Er—of course, I don't mean the words—they're rippling. I mean the music—poor stuff—spoils words—composer ought to be kicked—who wrote it? She—I did! (Awkward silence.)—Punch.

Sister's Queer Actions.

Little Johnny—I guess sister doesn't care much for that young man that's after her now. Mother—I should hope not. Little Johnny—Of course she doesn't, 'cause she burns every one of his letters just as soon as she reads 'em.

Nothing Serious.

The Heiress—And I've been introduced to quite a number of the European nobility. Her Friend—Thinking of marrying any of them? The Heiress—Oh, no. I don't intend to buy a title. I'm merely shopping.—Puck.

When you bury animosity do not set up a headstone over its grave.—Dickens.

Queen Bess' Wardrobe.

Royal annals have never recorded a more varied and extensive wardrobe than that which belonged to the "virgin queen." Even at the age of sixty-eight, when she might be supposed to have outlived her youthful vanity, she possessed 99 complete official costumes, 102 French gowns, 100 robes with trains and 67 without, 126 antique dresses, 136 bodices, 125 tunics, not to mention such trifles as 96 mantles, 55 dressing gowns and 27 fans. It is possible that she had an ugly foot, for she possessed only nine pairs of shoes, which, considering her extravagance in other articles of apparel, must have some meaning. At her death 3,000 articles were found duly catalogued in her wardrobe which had adorned her proud person.

The Effect of Punctuation.

The following lines, found in an old book, improbable as they may seem on first reading, lose all their improbability by inserting semicolons after the words in italics:

I saw a cloud begin with ivy round
I saw a sturdy oak creep on the ground
I saw an owl swallow up a whale
I saw the boiling sea brimful of ale
I saw a vial glass fifteen yards deep
I saw a well full of man's tears that weep
I saw a man's eyes all in a flame of fire
I saw a house high as the moon or higher
I saw the radiant sun even at midnight
I saw a man who saw this wondrous sight.

—Pathfinder.

Maple Sugar.

It is said that the first sugar ever made in Vermont was made in Bennington in March, 1703, near the log cabin of Captain Samuel Robinson, the first settler of the town, who came from Hardwick, Mass. The sap was caught in short logs hollowed that held about a gallon. Many pounds of sugar were made and a liquor cask full of sirup.

A Sudden Question.

Professor Jowett was at a dinner in London. He said to a young man who was one of the guests, "What was the saddest event in history?" The young man, much taken aback, stammered out, "Robert Elsmere." "No," said the master, regarding him compassionately, "it was the death of Falstaff."

We are ready to do your work.

TWO MANAGERS IN THE COUNTY

The Columbiana County Telephone Company Divides Territory Into Districts.

ITS BUSINESS IS GROWING

East Liverpool Will Be Headquarters For the Southern District—An Entirely New Equipment For This City and Vicinity.

Important changes are scheduled to take place in the management of the Columbiana County Telephone company next Monday, and the people of East Liverpool and Southern Columbiana county will be interested in knowing that the alterations will redound to their benefit.

For some time the officials of the Federal Telephone company, under whose control the Columbiana company has been since its organization, have been contemplating a change. The territory included in the jurisdiction of the local concern is hard to reach, and when presided over by one manager he was kept constantly on the go. W. F. Crossley was the first to see the advantage, not only as a matter of economy, but for convenience, in having the county divided.

Several months ago when Mr. Crossley was given charge of the Youngstown district he retained the management of the northern section of this county, which included Salem, Leetonia, New Waterford, East Palestine, Columbiana and Lisbon. The management of the lower portion of the county, taking in East Liverpool, Wellsville, Chester, Irondale and Sallineville, was placed in the hands of A. U. Richardson, who formerly had charge of the local office alone.

This arrangement was most satisfactory as far as the southern Columbiana district was concerned, but Mr. Crossley's duties at Youngstown were so arduous that it was nearly impossible for him to give the attention to the north end it demanded. He made his regular trips, however, and the field was looked after as well as it was possible to do.

APT ILLUSTRATION

How Mr. Charles T. Larkins Showed the Difference to a News Review Man.

A News Review man was talking to Mr. Charles T. Larkins lately, discussing a very interesting subject, when Mr. Larkins said:

"See here, I'll show you now just what I mean."

He went out and soon returned with a bit of board and two bottles. Resting one end of the board on the counter, he supported the other end with his fingers, and poured on the board from one of the bottles a drop of thick, oily substance, which slowly oozed down the slope. Then Mr. Larkins took the other bottle and poured out just a drop of the clear, delicious, dark red liquid. This drop shot down the incline in the twinkling of an eye.

"This first bottle," said Mr. Larkins, "is the old-fashioned cod liver oil, or emulsion, as it is called. The second bottle contains Vinol. See how slowly the emulsion creeps along the board. It is thick, sluggish, unwholesome. But the Vinol dashes to the bottom at once. These two substances act like this in the human body—the cod liver oil is so thick and clogging that it merely upsets digestion, and its medicinal value is lost, while Vinol goes at once to the seat of trouble and corrects the difficulty by creating an appetite and building up the strength and general health."

"Vinol, you know, is a cod liver oil preparation, and, while it contains all the medicinal elements which have made cod liver oil famous, it contains not a drop of oil, and is delicious to the taste. We cannot guarantee old-fashioned cod liver oil or emulsion, but Vinol is guaranteed to the limit, and if it fails to give satisfaction it costs nothing. We stand the loss. But it won't fail. Try it on our guarantee and see." Charles T. Larkins, druggist.

A meeting of the head officials of the Federal was held at Cleveland a few days ago, and it was there determined to make another change. Northern Columbiana county was thought to be important enough to occupy the time of a separate manager, and W. S. Holloway, of Massillon, who had been a trusted employee of the company for years, was engaged to take charge of the new district. Beginning with the first of the month Mr. Crossley will be relieved of the direct management of the Salem district, and

Mr. Holloway will assume the duties. Mr. Crossley will still retain control of the Columbiana company as general manager, however, but it will only be necessary for him to pay a visit to this city and Salem once a month.

The change will be an important one to the patrons of the company in East Liverpool. Mr. Richardson will make his headquarters in this city. The bookkeeping for this district will all be performed at the East Liverpool office, and the advantages to subscribers in the matter of new work and repairs will be incalculable. The territory being so much smaller, it will be comparatively easy to reach it from this city, and in case of trouble the necessary repairs can be made in a very short time.

The company has placed an order for an entirely new equipment for this city and vicinity. The manufacturers have been busy upon the fittings for several weeks, and it is expected will be ready to deliver the goods within the next three months. The outfit includes a new system throughout. The working force here will be increased, and when the more modern fixtures are received no time will be lost in placing them in position.

Once Wealthy Woman Commits Suicide in New York Hotel.

New York, April 29.—Leaving letters saying that she had once been a woman of wealth, but had lost her money and had been driven to suicide, Mrs. S. J. Keim, 32 years old, killed herself with poison in the Vendome hotel.

In one of the letters the woman requested the coroner to notify her brothers, S. S. and J. Frank Page of Oberlin, Pa., of her death, and another short note asked that word be sent to E. O. Shaffer of 317 Broad street, Harrisburg, Pa. Very little information concerning the woman could be obtained at the hotel. It was said she had come to the place from another hotel about six months ago and that she was believed to be an actress.

Dover, Del., April 29.—Mrs. Edith J. Hollis, indicted for the murder of her husband, Delaware T. Hollis, at Camden, Nov. 11, was acquitted, the jury rendering a verdict of not guilty by reason of insanity.

Mrs. Hollis was formerly an inmate of the Farnhurst asylum for the insane, but was taken home by her husband against the advice of the officials. She was recommitted to the institution after having murdered her husband.

PRIEST IS EXONERATED.

Inquest Shows Andrew Sofka Died of Peritonitis.

Bellefonte, Pa., April 29.—The Rev. Father Victor Harek, who was arrested last Sunday on the charge of cruelly beating Andrew Sofka, was exonerated when the case was called in habeas corpus proceedings.

District Attorney Spangler announced that inasmuch as the coroner's inquest revealed that the boy died of peritonitis the commonwealth had no case against the priest. He said the latter never should have been arrested.

Most people have an idea that rheumatism is contracted like a cold, that the damp, chilly air penetrates the muscles and joints and causes the terrible aches and pains, or that it is something like a skin disease to be rubbed away with liniment or drawn out with plasters; but Rheumatism originates in the blood and is caused by Urea, or Uric Acid, an irritating, corroding poison that settles in muscles, joints and nerves, producing inflammation and soreness and the sharp, cutting pains peculiar to this distressing disease.

And George Ormes Wants the Man He Has Often Discharged Arrested And Searched—His Trials on Account of the Man's Actions.

George Ormes, a colored barber of West Market street, appeared at the city hall yesterday shortly after noon and asked the assistance of a policeman in preventing a discharged employee from leaving the city with some barber tools, the property of Ormes. The value of the goods alleged to have been stolen would not aggregate more than $6, but Ormes declares that the man must turn them over to him and knows his character well enough to keep him from attempting to force the man to give them up.

While registering the complaint against the fellow, who is known by the name of Gibson, Ormes unfolded some interesting facts concerning him. He said that Gibson, while under the influence of whisky, is the meanest man he ever met. Ormes discharged him four times and in each instance had sufficient reason. Upon one occasion Gibson opened the shop in the morning. He had been drunk the night before and of course was feeling rather out of sorts. A man who had been sick for two weeks entered and wanted a shave. His beard was long and Gibson did not relish the thought of starting the day on such a hard job. After the man got in the chair he told him that it would cost him a quarter to get the whiskers shaved. The man said he had only 15 cents. That made Gibson mad and notwithstanding that he had already lathered the man he put on his coat and left the shop.

Upon another occasion one of Mr. Ormes' regular and best customers directed a friend to the shop, telling him he would get good treatment and a good shave. The friend went to the shop and was greeted by Gibson in this manner: "Get out of here. You don't suppose I want to shave a man this early in the morning, do you?" Such actions did not go well with Ormes and he fired him every time, only to re-hire him when he would show up at the shop and shed a few tears.

He was discharged for good on Wednesday and after he left Ormes discovered that a strip, valued at $4.50, and a brush were missing. He believes the man will take them away with him and wants an officer to search him before he gets on a train.

TWO MANAGERS IN THE COUNTY

The Columbiana County Telephone Company Divides Territory Into Districts.

ITS BUSINESS IS GROWING

East Liverpool Will Be Headquarters For the Southern District—An Entirely New Equipment For This City and Vicinity.

Important changes are scheduled to take place in the management of the Columbiana County Telephone company next Monday, and the people of East Liverpool and Southern Columbiana county will be interested in knowing that the alterations will redound to their benefit.

For some time the officials of the Federal Telephone company, under whose control the Columbiana company has been since its organization, have been contemplating a change. The territory included in the jurisdiction of the local concern is hard to reach, and when presided over by one manager he was kept constantly on the go. W. F. Crossley was the first to see the advantage, not only as a matter of economy, but for convenience, in having the county divided.

Several months ago when Mr. Crossley was given charge of the Youngstown district he retained the management of the northern section of this county, which included Salem, Leetonia, New Waterford, East Palestine, Columbiana and Lisbon. The management of the lower portion of the county, taking in East Liverpool, Wellsville, Chester, Irondale and Salineville, was placed in the hands of A. U. Richardson, who formerly had charge of the local office alone.

This arrangement was most satisfactory as far as the southern Columbiana district was concerned, but Mr. Crossley's duties at Youngstown were so arduous that it was nearly impossible for him to give the attention to the north end it demanded. He made his regular trips, however, and the field was looked after as well as it was possible to do.

APT ILLUSTRATION

How Mr. Charles T. Larkins Showed the Difference to a News Review Man.

A News Review man was talking to Mr. Charles T. Larkins lately, discussing a very interesting subject, when Mr. Larkins said:

"See here, I'll show you now just what I mean."

He went out and soon returned with a bit of board and two bottles. Resting one end of the board on the counter, he supported the other end with his fingers, and poured on the board from one of the bottles a drop of thick, oily substance, which slowly oozed down the slope. Then Mr. Larkins took the other bottle and poured out just a drop of the clear, delicious, dark red liquid. This drop shot down the incline in the twinkling of an eye.

"This first bottle," said Mr. Larkins, "is the old-fashioned cod liver oil, or emulsion, as it is called. The second bottle contains Vinol. See how slowly the emulsion creeps along the board. It is thick, sluggish, unwholesome. But the Vinol dashes to the bottom at once. These two substances act like this in the human body—the cod liver oil is so thick and clogging that it merely upsets digestion, and its medicinal value is lost, while Vinol goes at once to the seat of trouble and corrects the difficulty by creating an appetite and building up the strength and general health."

"Vinol, you know, is a cod liver oil preparation, and, while it contains all the medicinal elements which have made cod liver oil famous, it contains not a drop of oil, and is delicious to the taste. We cannot guarantee old-fashioned cod liver oil or emulsion, but Vinol is guaranteed to the limit, and if it fails to give satisfaction it costs nothing. We stand the loss. But it won't fail. Try it on our guarantee and see." Charles T. Larkins, druggist.

A meeting of the head officials of the Federal was held at Cleveland a few days ago, and it was there determined to make another change. Northern Columbiana county was thought to be important enough to occupy the time of a separate manager, and W. S. Holloway, of Massillon, who had been a trusted employee of the company for years, was engaged to take charge of the new district. Beginning with the first of the month Mr. Crossley will be relieved of the direct management of the Salem district, and

Mr. Holloway will assume the duties. Mr. Crossley will still retain control of the Columbiana company as general manager, however, but it will only be necessary for him to pay a visit to this city and Salem once a month.

The change will be an important one to the patrons of the company in East Liverpool. Mr. Richardson will make his headquarters in this city. The bookkeeping for this district will all be performed at the East Liverpool office, and the advantages to subscribers in the matter of new work and repairs will be incalculable. The territory being so much smaller, it will be comparatively easy to reach it from this city, and in case of trouble the necessary repairs can be made in a very short time.

The company has placed an order for an entirely new equipment for this city and vicinity. The manufacturers have been busy upon the fittings for several weeks, and it is expected will be ready to deliver the goods within the next three months. The outfit includes a new system throughout. The working force here will be increased, and when the more modern fixtures are received no time will be lost in placing them in position.

TWO MANAGERS IN THE COUNTY

The Columbiana County Telephone Company Divides Territory Into Districts.

ITS BUSINESS IS GROWING

East Liverpool Will Be Headquarters For the Southern District—An Entirely New Equipment For This City and Vicinity.

Important changes are scheduled to take place in the management of the Columbiana County Telephone company next Monday, and the people of East Liverpool and Southern Columbiana county will be interested in knowing that the alterations will redound to their benefit.

For some time the officials of the Federal Telephone company, under whose control the Columbiana company has been since its organization, have been contemplating a change. The territory included in the jurisdiction of the local concern is hard to reach, and when presided over by one manager he was kept constantly on the go. W. F. Crossley was the first to see the advantage, not only as a matter of economy, but for convenience, in having the county divided. Several months ago when Mr. Crossley was given charge of the Youngstown district he retained the management of the northern section of this county, which included Salem, Leetonia, New Waterford, East Palestine, Columbiana and Lisbon. The management of the lower portion of the county, taking in East Liverpool, Wellsville, Chester, Irondale and Salineville, was placed in the hands of A. U. Richardson, who formerly had charge of the local office alone.

This arrangement was most satisfactory as far as the southern Columbiana district was concerned, but Mr. Crossley's duties at Youngstown were so arduous that it was nearly impossible for him to give the attention to the north end it demanded. He made his regular trips, however, and the field was looked after as well as it was possible to do.

APT ILLUSTRATION

How Mr. Charles T. Larkins Showed the Difference to a News Review Man.

A News Review man was talking to Mr. Charles T. Larkins lately, discussing a very interesting subject, when Mr. Larkins said:

"See here, I'll show you now just what I mean." He went out and soon returned with a bit of board and two bottles. Resting one end of the board on the counter, he supported the other end with his fingers, and poured on the board from one of the bottles a drop of thick, oily substance, which slowly oozed down the slope. Then Mr. Larkins took the other bottle and poured out just a drop of the clear, delicious, dark red liquid. This drop shot down the incline in the twinkling of an eye.

"This first bottle," said Mr. Larkins, "is the old-fashioned cod liver oil, or emulsion, as it is called. The second bottle contains Vinol. See how slowly the emulsion creeps along the board. It is thick, sluggish, unwholesome. But the Vinol dashes to the bottom at once. These two substances act like this in the human body—the cod liver oil is so thick and clogging that it merely upsets digestion, and its medicinal value is lost, while Vinol goes at once to the seat of trouble and corrects the difficulty by creating an appetite and building up the strength and general health.

"Vinol, you know, is a cod liver oil preparation, and while it contains all the medicinal elements which have made cod liver oil famous, it contains not a drop of oil, and is delicious to the taste. We cannot guarantee old-fashioned cod liver oil or emulsion, but Vinol is guaranteed to the limit, and if it fails to give satisfaction it costs nothing. We stand the loss. But it won't fail. Try it on our guarantee and see." Charles T. Larkins, druggist.

A meeting of the head officials of the Federal was held at Cleveland a few days ago, and it was there determined to make another change. Northern Columbiana county was thought to be important enough to occupy the time of a separate manager, and W. S. Holloway, of Massillon, who had been a trusted employee of the company for years, was engaged to take charge of the new district. Beginning with the first of the month Mr. Crossley will be relieved of the direct management of the Salem district, and

Mr. Holloway will assume the duties. Mr. Crossley will still retain control of the Columbiana company as general manager, however, but it will only be necessary for him to pay a visit to this city and Salem once a month.

The change will be an important one to the patrons of the company in East Liverpool. Mr. Richardson will make his headquarters in this city. The bookkeeping for this district will all be performed at the East Liverpool office, and the advantages to subscribers in the matter of new work and repairs will be incalculable. The territory being so much smaller, it will be comparatively easy to reach it from this city, and in case of trouble the necessary repairs can be made in a very short time.

The company has placed an order for an entirely new equipment for this city and vicinity. The manufacturers have been busy upon the fittings for several weeks, and it is expected will be ready to deliver the goods within the next three months. The outfit includes a new system throughout. The working force here will be increased, and when the more modern fixtures are received no time will be lost in placing them in position.

COULDN'T FACE POVERTY.

Once Wealthy Woman Commits Suicide in New York Hotel.

New York, April 29.—Leaving letters saying that she had once been a woman of wealth, but had lost her money and had been driven to suicide, Mrs. S. J. Keim, 32 years old, killed herself with poison in the Vendome hotel.

In one of the letters the woman requested the coroner to notify her brothers, S. S. and J. Frank Page of Oberlin, Pa., of her death, and another short note asked that word be sent to E. O. Shafner of 317 Broad street, Harrisburg, Pa. Very little information concerning the woman could be obtained at the hotel. It was said she had come to the place from another hotel about six months ago and that she was believed to be an actress.

INSANE WOMAN ACQUITTED.

Taken Home from Asylum She Murdered Her Husband.

Dover, Del., April 29.—Mrs. Edith J. Hollis, indicted for the murder of her husband, Delaware T. Hollis, at Camden, Nov. 11, was acquitted, the jury rendering a verdict of not guilty by reason of insanity.

Mrs. Hollis was formerly an inmate of the Farnhurst asylum for the insane, but was taken home by her husband against the advice of the officials. She was recommended to the institution after having murdered her husband.

PRIEST IS EXONERATED.

Inquest Shows Andrew Sofka Died of Peritonitis.

Bellefonte, Pa., April 29.—The Rev. Father Victor Harek, who was arrested last Sunday on the charge of cruelly beating Andrew Sofka, was exonerated when the case was called in habeas corpus proceedings.

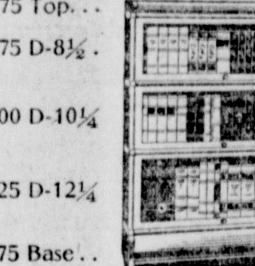

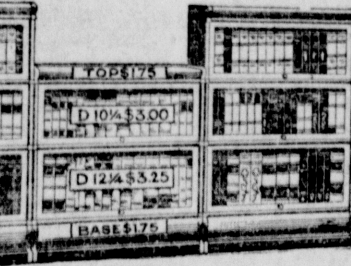

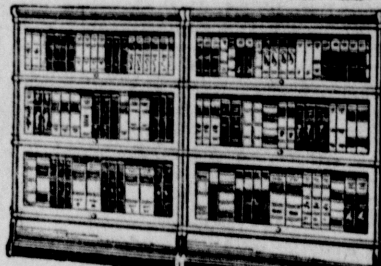

District Attorney Spangler announced that inasmuch as the coroner's inquest revealed that the boy died of peritonitis the commonwealth had no case against the priest. He said the latter never should have been arrested.

Ask Lewis Bros. About It

Rheumatism Is Not a Skin Disease.

Most people have an idea that rheumatism is contracted like a cold, that the damp, chilly air penetrates the muscles and joints and causes the terrible aches and pains, or that it is something like a skin disease to be rubbed away with liniment or drawn out with plasters; but Rheumatism originates in the blood and is caused by Urea, or Uric Acid, an irritating, corroding poison that settles in muscles, joints and nerves, producing inflammation and soreness and the sharp, cutting pains peculiar to this distressing disease.

Exposure to bad weather or sudden chilling of the body will hasten an attack of Rheumatism after the blood and system are in the right condition for it to develop, but have nothing to do with the real true causes of Rheumatism, which are internal and not external.

Liniments, plasters and rubbing will sometimes reduce the inflammation and swelling and ease the pain for a time, but fail to relieve permanently because they do not reach the seat of the trouble. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism because it attacks it in the blood, and the Uric Acid poison is neutralized, the sluggish circulation stimulated and quickened, and soon the system is purified and cleansed, the aching muscles and joints are relieved of all irritating matter and a lasting cure of this most painful disease effected.

S. S. S. is a harmless vegetable remedy, unequalled as a blood purifier and an invigorating, pleasant tonic. Book on Rheumatism will be mailed free.

CLOTHCRAFT

The Two-Button "Rugby"

Is popular with young men who want the very latest "wrinkle" in clothing.

The "Rugby" is the latest model, but there's not a wrinkle in it.

Look at the illustration and see how beautifully the suit fits—see how broad and graceful the shoulders are, how smoothly the front hangs, how shapely the trousers are.

And all that beauty and shape will be retained throughout the life of the suit.

Mark that well. Clothcraft Suits aren't made to give service for a few weeks and then lose their fit and become shabby.

They're made to withstand hard wear—to give you such complete satisfaction that you'll buy them season after season.

There's nothing cheap about them except their price—$10 to $25.

The first Clothcraft Suit you buy will prove the truth of this assertion.

There's not a better one to begin with than the "Rugby."

We'll be glad to show it to you at any time—but TO-DAY is the best day.

A QUARTER ASKED FOR ONE SHAVE

By a Barber Against Whom His Employer Files a Complaint.

ARTICLES ARE MISSING

And George Ormes Wants the Man He Has Often Discharged Arrested And Searched—His Trials on Account of the Man's Actions.

George Ormes, a colored barber of West Market street, appeared at the city hall yesterday shortly after noon and asked the assistance of a policeman in preventing a discharged employee from leaving the city with some barber tools, the property of Ormes. The value of the goods alleged to have been stolen would not aggregate more than $6, but Ormes declares that the man must turn them over to him and knows his character well enough to keep him from attempting to force the man to give them up.

While registering the complaint against the fellow, who is known by the name of Gibson, Ormes unfolded some interesting facts concerning him. He said that Gibson, while under the influence of whisky, is the meanest man he ever met. Ormes discharged him four times and in each instance had sufficient reason. Upon one occasion Gibson opened the shop in the morning. He had been drunk the night before and of course was feeling rather out of sorts. A man who had been sick for two weeks entered and wanted a shave. His beard was long and Gibson did not relish the thought of starting the day on such a hard job. After the man got in the chair he told him that it would cost him a quarter to get the whiskers shaved. The man said he had only 15 cents. That made Gibson mad and notwithstanding that he had already lathered the man he put on his coat and left the shop.

Upon another occasion one of Mr. Ormes' regular and best customers directed a friend to the shop, telling him he would get good treatment and a good shave. The friend went to the shop and was greeted by Gibson in this manner: "Get out of here. You don't suppose I want to shave a man this early in the morning, do you?" Such actions did not go well with Ormes and he fired him every time, only to re-hire him when he would show up at the shop and shed a few tears.

He was discharged for good on Wednesday and after he left Ormes discovered that a strip, valued at $4.50, and a brush were missing. He believes the man will take them away with him and wants an officer to search him before he gets on a train.

JAPS WANT REVENGE

Vow Vengeance for Sinking of Defenseless Troopship by the Russians.

DENOUNCE ACT AS COWARDLY

Russian Squadron Believed to Have Been Trapped by Japanese Fleet—News of Its Destruction Is Anxiously Awaited.

Nagasaki, April 29.—The sinking of the transport Kinshu Maru by Russian torpedo boats, with a number of Japanese troops aboard, has caused intense excitement here and has aroused a feeling of savagery which may result in giving the naval war a ferocious aspect which has been hitherto lacking on the part of the Japanese. It is safe to say that, should the Vladivostok fleet be overtaken and beaten while the temper lasts, and this is regarded as not unlikely, few Russian prisoners would be taken.

The heroism of the Japanese soldiers who preferred to go to death fighting against overwhelming odds rather than surrender, is spoken of with intense pride and it is possible that posthumous honors will be conferred on all of them. The officers and men who surrendered, leaving their comrades to a glorious death, are not popular, and unless public feeling changes their lot will not be a happy one when they return.

A naval officer expressed the general opinion when he said:

"They call us a heathen nation and Russia a Christian. This last heroic feat of the Russian navy shows where the savagery is. With a great squadron of armored cruisers and smaller craft they could find no other way of dealing with an unarmed transport than to send her to the bottom with her freight of heroic souls who preferred death to dishonor. I warrant you that neither Togo nor Uru nor Kamemura nor any of Japan's gallant sailors would have been guilty of so heinous a crime. Russia may find that Japan can play the game, neither asking nor giving quarter, if she prefers it that way."

The feeling is strong here that the Russian squadron operating in the Japan sea is in a trap from which it never will escape. The news of its destruction at any time would cause very little surprise here.

PAWNEE FAMOUS TRINKET

MORGAN'S ADVICE ASKED.

French Bankers Fear Canal Payment May Disturb Money Market.

Paris, April 29.—Some of the most important details of the payment of the $40,000,000 to the Panama Canal company for the canal concession are still open. This is due to the desire to effect the payment without causing a disturbance of the French money market.

Some of the leading financial institutions, including the Banque de France, a government institution, represent that the sudden dumping of $40,000,000 on the French market may cause a disturbance. Therefore it has been considered advisable to make the payment so far as possible by trade bank balances, thus avoiding the shipment of $40,000,000 in coin. As J. Pierpont Morgan is here, he was consulted as to how the plan could be carried out and it was at first expected that he would undertake the transaction. However, it is now considered that others probably will carry out the plan.

When the correspondent of the Associated Press saw Mr. Morgan he said the matter had not yet assumed sufficient definiteness to permit him to speak.

Miss Hapgood tells how she was cured of Fallopian and Ovarian Inflammation—and escaped an awful operation by using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered for four years with what the doctors called Salpingitis (inflammation of the fallopian tubes) and ovaritis, which are most distressing and painful ailments, affecting all the surrounding parts, undermining the constitution, and sapping the life forces. If you had seen me a year ago, before I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and had noticed the sunken eyes, sallow complexion, and general emaciated condition, and compared that person with me as I am today, robust, hearty and well, you would not wonder that I feel thankful to you and your wonderful medicine, which restored me to new life and health in five months, and saved me from an awful operation."—Miss Irene Hapgood, 1022 Sandwich St., Windsor, Ont.

Ovaritis or inflammation of the ovaries or fallopian tubes which adjoin the ovaries may result from sudden stopping of the monthly flow, from inflammation of the womb, and many other causes. The slightest indication of trouble with the ovaries, indicated by dull throbbing pain in the side, accompanied by heat and shooting pains, should claim your instant attention. It will not cure itself, and a hospital operation, with all its terrors, may easily result from neglect.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I can truly say that you have saved my life, and I cannot express my gratitude to you in words.

"Before I wrote to you telling how I felt, I had doctored for over two years steady and spent lots of money in medicine besides, but it all failed to do me any good. My menses did not appear in that time, and I suffered much pain. I would daily have fainting spells, headache, backache, and bearing down pain, and was so weak that it was hard for me to do my work.

"I used your medicine and treatment as directed, and after taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, menses appeared, my womb troubles left me, and I have been regular ever since. I used fourteen bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier together, and am now restored to perfect health. Had it not been for you, I would have been in my grave. I will always recommend your wonderful remedies, and hope that these few lines may lead others who suffer as I did to try your remedies."—Mrs. T. C. WILLIAMS, R. R. No. 1, Manning, Iowa.

Such unquestionable testimony proves the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over diseases of women. Women should remember that they are privileged to consult Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., about their illness, entirely free.

CONGRESS ADJOURNS

Demonstration in Honor of Speaker Cannon Is Feature in House.

DEMOCRATS LEAD IN OVATION

Remarkable Scene Marks Closing Moments—Minority Leader Presents Resolution of Thanks Which Is Carried Unanimously.

Washington, April 29.—The closing day of the second session of the house of the Fifty-eighth congress was made notable by the demonstration which was evoked by a resolution offered by Mr. Williams, the minority leader, testifying to the courtesy and impartial manner in which Speaker Cannon had presided over the house.

The resolution was not of the perfunctory kind, but was expressive of the kindly feeling which men in the house of all parties entertained toward him. In a graceful speech the speaker declared his appreciation of the resolution.

Mr. Williams said that it was a great thing to be a speaker of the house of commons of the American republic, but that it was a greater thing "not to permit the fact of promotion to that place, one of the most exalted in the world, to turn one's head in the slightest degree or to deflect one from the course hitherto pursued, of being a plain American citizen, with extraordinary common sense and a remarkable fund of that most characteristic of all American qualities—genial humor."

This utterance provoked vociferous applause from both sides of the house and the galleries. Mr. Williams then convulsed the house by referring to a conversation he once had with the speaker, in the course of which he said, "Mr. Speaker, I will always think that you are fair as I believe you will be."

The speaker, he said, replied, "John, I am going to be as fair as I consistently can with the exigencies of American politics."

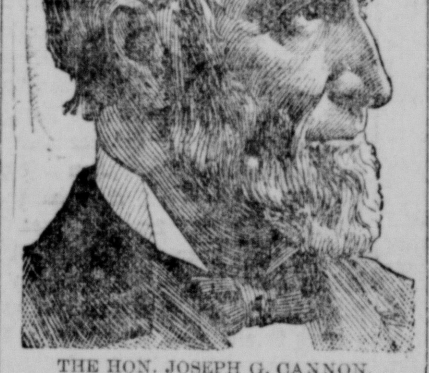

House Cheers Speaker Cannon. Mr. Williams declared that the

He then moved the adoption of the resolution and that a committee be appointed to "bring him in." There was another outburst of applause. The resolution was unanimously adopted on a rising vote. Mr. Richardson then selected Messrs. Payne, Hemenway and Williams to escort the speaker into the hall. In a few moments the committee escorted the speaker down the center aisle and pandemonium reigned. Democrats and Republicans alike shrieked and applauded, the occupants of the galleries joining.

When the speaker had mounted the rostrum Mr. Williams, standing by Mr. Cannon's side, read him the resolution which had been adopted. The speaker was visibly affected and as he began to address the house he barely spoke above a whisper. However, he soon recovered his composure and speaking in a distinct voice said:

Makes Modest Speech of Thanks.

"I would be less than human if I did not voice my thanks to the members of the house of representatives for the kindly resolution adopted unanimously by the house. It touches me more than I can express. For almost 30 years I have been a member of this body, for good or ill. The future will have to determine if the present has not decided it. I have seen many congresses begin and close, and during that service I have been proud and the pride has increased from one congress to another to be a member of this body that represents directly 80,000,000 of people competent for self-government and from time to time assist in the voicing of the will of the people."

"It goes without saying that in a republic all men do not agree as to proper policies to be pursued, but the majority and minority, after due consideration, from time to time, have written the will of the people upon the statute books."

"In the nature of things the contests on the hustings and in the hall of the house are spirited and earnest. I would be less than human if I did not say that while for the time being I co-operate with the majority, after all the minority has a function to perform almost equal in importance to the function of the majority, and it is a matter of gratification not only to me now, at the close of this second session of the Fifty-eighth congress, but as I recollect it at the close of the various congresses of which I have been a member, that when the heat of contest has died away there ever remains respect on each side for the other, for the efforts of intelligent, patriotic, brave men who represent their constituents according to their respective judgments."

"May this condition continue to prevail as long as the republic lasts. After all, when we, as representatives 'strut and fret a brief hour on this stage' we can say both on the majority and minority side, 'It is well done for the endurance, the prosperity and the glory of the republic.'"

"I wish each member of this house a safe journey to his home; good health until the next session of congress, when, after having come in touch with the people, he returns ready for a renewal of his work in the public interest."

House Then Adjourns.

"There remains nothing for me now but, in pursuance of the concurrent resolution of the house and senate, to declare the second session of the Fifty-eighth congress adjourned without day."

The ovation to the speaker as he brought his gavel down exactly at 2:10 o'clock will be long remembered as one of the greatest demonstrations of regard ever witnessed in the house of representatives, as to a man the members rose and sang "America," the occupants of the galleries joining in. Speaker Cannon took a position near the lobby door on the Republican side and the members filed past and bade him goodbye, all the while singing "He's a Jolly Good Fellow," with a refrain, "So say we all of us," to the tune of "America," closing with "God be with you till we meet again."

Many conference reports were agreed to on bills which had been in dispute between the two houses. The only debate of any importance was on the bill providing for the restoration of the naval academy of three cadets who had been dismissed for hazing, the house voting overwhelmingly against it.

With brief announcement and a sharp rap of his well-worked gavel President pro tem Frye adjourned the senate sine die at 2 p. m., the hour fixed by resolution.

The Day in the Senate.

The senate began its work at 10:30 a. m., but the greater part of the time was devoted to a political debate, participated in on the Republican side by Messrs. Allison and Aldrich and on the Democratic side by Messrs. Gorman and Culberson. The discussion was based on a statement by Mr. Allison of the appropriations for this year and for the administration of President Roosevelt with those of other years and other administrations.

The president and his cabinet occupied the president's capitol office room during a part of the debate and some of the president's advisers were among the most interested listeners to the criticism and defense of their chief. Mrs. Roosevelt and other members of the president's family occupied seats in the gallery towards the close of the session and they found entertainment in the proceedings.

The only important acts of legislation during the day were the presentation and acceptance of conference reports on the Panama canal government and emergency river and harbor bills. Neither report aroused debate.

A Great Sensation.

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind., when W. H. Brown, of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from asthma, but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure." Similar cures of consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis and grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50 cents and $1. Guaranteed by Will Read, Charles F. Larkins, C. G. Anderson, J. D. Holloway, druggists. Trial bottles free.

CRUM RENOMINATED.

President Once More Appoints Colored Citizen to Office.

Washington, April 29.—President Roosevelt has directed the reappointment of W. D. Crum, colored, as collector of customs at Charleston, S. C. The president has received positive assurance that the senate will take up Crum's case immediately on reconvening next session and that it will be disposed of finally.

Until he is confirmed Crum cannot draw any salary, but it is said that his friends have arranged to see that he is provided with ample funds. Should he be confirmed the government, of course, will pay him the back salary.

CONGRESS ADJOURNS

Demonstration in Honor of Speaker Cannon Is Fea-

DEMOCRATS LEAD IN OVATION

Remarkable Scene Marks Closing Moments—Minority Leader Presents Resolution of Thanks Which Is Carried Unanimously.

Washington, April 29.—The closing day of the second session of the house of the Fifty-eighth congress was made notable by the demonstration which was evoked by a resolution offered by Mr. Williams, the minority leader, testifying to the courtesy and impartial manner in which Speaker Cannon had presided over the house.

The resolution was not of the perfunctory kind, but was expressive of the kindly feeling which men in the house of all parties entertained toward him. In a graceful speech the speaker declared his appreciation of the resolution.

Mr. Williams said that it was a great thing to be a speaker of the house of commons of the American republic, but that it was a greater thing "not to permit the fact of promotion to that place, one of the most exalted in the world, to turn one's head in the slightest degree or to deflect one from the course hitherto pursued, of being a plain American citizen, with extraordinary common sense and a remarkable fund of that most characteristic of all American qualities—keen humor."

This utterance provoked vociferous applause from both sides of the house and the galleries. Mr. Williams then convulsed the house by referring to a conversation he once had with the speaker, in the course of which he said, "Mr. Speaker, I will always think that you are fair as I believe you will be."

The speaker, he said, replied, "John, I am going to be as fair as I consistently can with the exigencies of American politics."

House Cheers Speaker Cannon.
Mr. Williams declared that the

He then moved the adoption of the resolution and that a committee be appointed to "bring him in." There was another outburst of applause. The resolution was unanimously adopted on a rising vote. Mr. Richardson then selected Messrs. Payne, Hemenway and Williams to escort the speaker into the hall. In a few moments the committee escorted the speaker down the center aisle and pandemonium reigned. Democrats and Republicans alike shrieked and applauded, the occupants of the galleries joining.

"When the speaker had mounted the rostrum Mr. Williams, standing by Mr. Cannon's side, read him the resolution which had been adopted. The speaker was visibly affected and as he began to address the house he barely spoke above a whisper. However, he soon recovered his composure and speaking in a distinct voice said:

Makes Modest Speech of Thanks.
"I would be less than human if I did not voice my thanks to the members of the house of representatives for the kindly resolution adopted unanimously by the house. It touches me more than I can express. For almost 30 years I have been a member of this body, for good or ill. The future will have to determine if the present has not decided it. I have seen many congresses begin and close, and during that service I have been proud and the pride has increased from one congress to another to be a member of this body that represents directly 80,000,000 of people competent for self-government and from time to time assist in the voicing of the will of the people."

"It goes without saying that in a republic all men do not agree as to proper policies to be pursued, but the majority and minority, after due consideration, from time to time, have written the will of the people upon the statute books."

"In the nature of things the contests on the hustings and in the hall of the house are spirited and earnest. I would be less than human did I not say that while for the time being I co-operate with the majority, after all the minority has a function to perform almost equal in importance to the function of the majority, and it is a matter of gratification not only to me now, at the close of this second session of the Fifty-eighth congress, but as I recollect it at the close of the various congresses of which I have been a member, that when the heat of contest has died away there ever remains respect on each side for the other, for the efforts of intelligent, patriotic, brave men who represent their constituents according to their respective judgments."

"May this condition continue to prevail as long as the republic lasts. After all, when we, as representatives 'strut and fret a brief hour on this stage' we can say both on the majority and minority side, 'It is well done for the endurance, the prosperity and the glory of the republic.'"

"I wish each member of this house a safe journey to his home; good health until the next session of congress, when, after having come in touch with the people, he returns ready for a renewal of his work in the public interest."

House Then Adjourns.
"There remains nothing for me now but, in pursuance of the concurrent resolution of the house and senate, to declare the second session of the Fifty-eighth congress adjourned without day."

The ovation to the speaker as he brought his gavel down exactly at 2:10 o'clock will be long remembered as one of the greatest demonstrations of regard ever witnessed in the house of representatives, as to a man the members rose and sang "America," the occupants of the galleries joining in. Speaker Cannon took a position near the lobby door on the Republican side and the members filed past and bade him goodbye, all the while singing "He's a Jolly Good Fellow," with a refrain, "So say we all of us," to the tune of "America," closing with "God be with you till we meet again."

Many conference reports were agreed to on bills which had been in dispute between the two houses. The only debate of any importance was on the bill providing for the restoration of the naval academy of three cadets who had been dismissed for hazing, the house voting overwhelmingly against it.

With brief announcement and a sharp rap of his well-worked gavel President pro tem Frye adjourned the senate sine die at 2 p. m., the hour fixed by resolution.

The Day in the Senate.

The senate began its work at 10:33 a. m., but the greater part of the time was devoted to a political debate, participated in on the Republican side by Messrs. Allison and Aldrich and on the Democratic side by Messrs. Gorman and Culberson. The discussion was based on a statement by Mr. Allison of the appropriations for this year and for the administration of President Roosevelt with those of other years and other administrations.

The president and his cabinet occupied the president's capitol office room during a part of the debate and some of the president's advisers were among the most interested listeners to the criticism and defense of their chief. Mrs. Roosevelt and other members of the president's family occupied seats in the gallery towards the close of the session and they found entertainment in the proceedings.

The only important acts of legislation during the day were the presentation and acceptance of conference reports on the Panama canal government and emergency river and harbor bills. Neither report aroused debate.

A Great Sensation.

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind., when W. H. Brown, of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from asthma, but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure." Similar cures of consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis and grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50 cents and $1. Guaranteed by Will Reed, Charles F. Larkins, C. G. Anderson, J. D. Hollo-way, druggists. Trial bottles free.

CRUM RENOMINATED.

President Once More Appoints Colored Citizen to Office.

Washington, April 29.—President Roosevelt has directed the reappointment of W. D. Crum, colored, as collector of customs at Charleston, S. C. The president has received positive assurance that the senate will take up Crum's case immediately on reconvening next session and that it will be disposed of finally.

Until he is confirmed Crum cannot draw any salary, but it is said that his friends have arranged to see that he is provided with ample funds. Should he be confirmed the government, of course, will pay him the back salary.

"A Summer Fairland."

To those who are planning a summer outing and seeking "green fields and pastures new," some place where they may cast care aside and commune with primitive nature, where, though the sun shines ever brightly, cooling breezes always blow and great heat is unknown, it is safely promised that among the rocks and lakes of the Muskoka district, about 100 miles north of Toronto, situate in the Highlands of Ontario, (1,000 feet above sea level), they will find enchantment.

Handsome, illustrated descriptive publications will be sent free to any address on application to R. McSmith, Southern Passenger Agent, 124 Woodward avenue, Detroit, Mich.

Injured by Coughing Fit.
St. Louis, April 29.—During a severe coughing spell Dr. McGee, chief of the anthropological department at the world's fair, strained a ligament in his left side and it is thought fractured a rib.

"I had a running, itching sore on my leg. Suffered tortures. Doan's Ointment took away the burning and itching instantly, and quickly effected a permanent cure." C. W. Lenhart, Bowling Green, O.

Panama Asks for $1,000,000.
Washington, April 29.—The government of Panama has requested that $1,000,000 of the amount to be paid on the canal purchase be transmitted to J. P. Morgan & Co., their agents at New York, the remaining $9,000,000 to await the arrival here of the Panama minister in June next. The treasury department will comply with this request.

Celebrates 104th Birthday.
Utica, N. Y., April 29.—With nearly all his faculties gone, Hiram Cronk of Dunbrook, the only survivor of the war of 1812, completed his 104th milestone. His birthday anniversary is today. The aged pensioner's life is gradually ebbing away.

CONGRESS ADJOURNS

Demonstration in Honor of Speaker Cannon Is Feature in House.

DEMOCRATS LEAD IN OVATION

Remarkable Scene Marks Closing Moments—Minority Leader Presents Resolution of Thanks Which Is Carried Unanimously.

Washington, April 29.—The closing day of the second session of the house of the Fifty-eighth congress was made notable by the demonstration which was evoked by a resolution offered by Mr. Williams, the minority leader, testifying to the courtesy and impartial manner in which Speaker Cannon had presided over the house.

The resolution was not of the perfunctory kind, but was expressive of the kindly feeling which men in the house of all parties entertained toward him. In a graceful speech the speaker declared his appreciation of the resolution.

Mr. Williams said that it was a great thing to be a speaker of the house of commons of the American republic, but that it was a greater thing "not to permit the fact of promotion to that place, one of the most exalted in the world, to turn one's head in the slightest degree or to deflect one from the course hitherto pursued, of being a plain American citizen, with extraordinary common sense and a remarkable fund of that most characteristic of all American qualities—genial humor."

This utterance provoked vociferous applause from both sides of the house and the galleries. Mr. Williams then convulsed the house by referring to a conversation he once had with the speaker, in the course of which he said, "Mr. Speaker, I will always think that you are fair as I believe you will be."

The speaker, he said, replied, "John, I am going to be as fair as I consistently can with the exigencies of American politics."

House Cheers Speaker Cannon. Mr. Williams declared that the

He then moved the adoption of the resolution and that a committee be appointed to "bring him in." There was another outburst of applause. The resolution was unanimously adopted on a rising vote. Mr. Richardson then selected Messrs. Payne, Hemenway and Williams to escort the speaker into the hall. In a few moments the committee escorted the speaker down the center aisle and pandemonium reigned. Democrats and Republicans alike shrieked and applauded, the occupants of the galleries joining.

When the speaker had mounted the rostrum Mr. Williams, standing by Mr. Cannon's side, read him the resolution which had been adopted. The speaker was visibly affected and as he began to address the house he barely spoke above a whisper. However, he soon recovered his composure and speaking in a distinct voice said:

Makes Modest Speech of Thanks.

"I would be less than human if I did not voice my thanks to the members of the house of representatives for the kindly resolution adopted unanimously by the house. It touches me more than I can express. For almost 30 years I have been a member of this body, for good or ill. The future will have to determine if the present has not decided it. I have seen many congresses begin and close, and during that service I have been proud and the pride has increased from one congress to another to be a member of this body that represents directly 80,000,000 of people competent for self-government and from time to time assist in the voicing of the will of the people.

"It goes without saying that in a republic all men do not agree as to proper policies to be pursued, but the majority and minority, after due consideration, from time to time, have written the will of the people upon the statute books.

"In the nature of things the contests on the hustings and in the hall of the house are spirited and earnest. I would be less than human did I not say that while for the time being I co-operate with the majority, after all the minority has a function to perform almost equal in importance to the function of the majority, and it is a matter of gratification not only to me now, at the close of this second session of the Fifty-eighth congress, but as I recollect it at the close of the various congresses of which I have been a member, that when the heat of contest has died away there ever remains respect on each side for the other, for the efforts of intelligent, patriotic, brave men who represent their constituents according to their respective judgments.

"May this condition continue to prevail as long as the republic lasts. After all, when we, as representatives 'strut and fret a brief hour on this stage' we can say both on the majority and minority side, 'It is well done for the endurance, the prosperity and the glory of the republic.'

"I wish each member of this house a safe journey to his home; good health until the next session of congress, when, after having come in touch with the people, he returns ready for a renewal of his work in the public interest.

House Then Adjourns.

"There remains nothing for me now but, in pursuance of the concurrent resolution of the house and senate, to declare the second session of the Fifty-eighth congress adjourned without day."

The ovation to the speaker as he brought his gavel down exactly at 2:10 o'clock will be long remembered as one of the greatest demonstrations of regard ever witnessed in the house of representatives, as to a man the members rose and sang "America," the occupants of the galleries joining in. Speaker Cannon took a position near the lobby door on the Republican side and the members filed past and bade him goodbye, all the while singing "He's a Jolly Good Fellow," with a refrain, "So say we all of us," to the tune of "America," closing with "God be with you till we meet again."

Many conference reports were agreed to on bills which had been in dispute between the two houses. The only debate of any importance was on the bill providing for the restoration to the naval academy of three cadets who had been dismissed for hazing, the house voting overwhelmingly against it.

With brief announcement and a sharp rap of his well-worked gavel President pro tem Frye adjourned the senate sine die at 2 p. m., the hour fixed by resolution.

The Day in the Senate.

The senate began its work at 10:33 a. m., but the greater part of the time was devoted to a political debate, participated in on the Republican side by Messrs. Allison and Aldrich and on the Democratic side by Messrs. Gorman and Culberson. The discussion was based on a statement by Mr. Allison of the appropriations for this year and for the administration of President Roosevelt with those of other years and other administrations.

The president and his cabinet occupied the president's capitol office room during a part of the debate and some of the president's advisers were among the most interested listeners to the criticism and defense of their chief. Mrs. Roosevelt and other members of the president's family occupied seats in the gallery towards the close of the session and they found entertainment in the proceedings.

The only important acts of legislation during the day were the presentation and acceptance of conference reports on the Panama canal government and emergency river and harbor bills. Neither report aroused debate.

A Great Sensation.

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind., when W. H. Brown, of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes:

"I endured insufferable agonies from asthma, but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure." Similar cures of consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis and grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50 cents and $1. Guaranteed by Will Reed, Charles F. Larkins, C. G. Anderson, J. D. Hollo-way, druggists. Trial bottles free.

CRUM RENOMINATED.

President Once More Appoints Colored Citizen to Office.

Washington, April 29.—President Roosevelt has directed the reappointment of W. D. Crum, colored, as collector of customs at Charleston, S. C. The president has received positive assurance that the senate will take up Crum's case immediately on reconvening next session and that it will be disposed of finally.

Until he is confirmed Crum cannot draw any salary, but it is said that his friends have arranged to see that he is provided with ample funds. Should he be confirmed the government, of course, will pay him the back salary.

"A Summer Fairytale."

To those who are planning a summer outing and seeking "green fields and pastures new," some place where they may cast care aside and commune with primitive nature, where, though the sun shines ever brightly, cooling breezes always blow and great heat is unknown, it is safely promised that among the rocks and lakes of the Muskoka district, about 100 miles north of Toronto, situate in the Highlands of Ontario, (1,000 feet above sea level), they will find enchantment.

Handsome, illustrated descriptive publications will be sent free by address on application to R. McSmith, Southern Passenger Agent, 124 Woodward avenue, Detroit, Mich.

Injured by Coughing Fit.

St. Louis, April 29.—During a severe coughing spell Dr. McGee, chief of the anthropological department at the world's fair, strained a ligament in his left side and it is thought fractured a rib.

"I had a running, itching sore on my leg. Suffered tortures. Doan's Ointment took away the burning and itching instantly, and quickly effected a permanent cure." C. W. Lenhart, Bowling Green, O.

Panama Asks for $1,000,000.

Washington, April 29.—The government of Panama has requested that $1,000,000 of the amount to be paid on the canal purchase be transmitted to J. P. Morgan & Co., their agents at New York, the remaining $9,000,000 to await the arrival here of the Panama minister in June next. The treasury department will comply with this request.

Celebrates 104th Birthday.

Utica, N. Y., April 29.—With nearly all his faculties gone, Hiram Cronk of Dunnbrook, the only survivor of the war of 1812, completed his 104th milestone. His birthday anniversary is today. The aged pensioner's life is gradually ebbing away.

BREATHE HEALING AIR

Hyomei Destroys Germs of Catarrh and Cures the Disease—Money Back If It Fails.

No other treatment for catarrhal troubles is as pleasant and convenient to use as Hyomei. Simply put twenty drops of Hyomei in the inhaler that comes with every outfit, and then breathe it for a few minutes four times a day, and it will cure the worst case of catarrh. In this way, one takes into the air passages of the head, throat and lungs air that is filled with balsamic healing and antiseptic fragrance. It goes to the most remote parts of the air passages, destroys all catarrhal germs, and enriches and purifies the blood with additional ozone.

The first day's use of Hyomei will show a decided improvement, and in a short time there will be no further trouble with catarrh. Its good effects are quickly gained, and the benefit is permanent.

VIEWES DIVERGENT.

Democratic and Republican Opinions on Work of Congress.

Washington, April 29.—The Republican and the Democratic view of appropriations made by the Fifty-eighth congress were presented to the house by Chairman Hemenway of the appropriations committee and Representative Livingston of Georgia, the ranking Democratic member of that committee.

"Good government housekeeping" is the caption chosen by Mr. Hemenway to represent his views. "A congress that has done nothing but spend money" is the heading of Mr. Livingston's summary. After reviewing the expenditures of the next fiscal year, Mr. Hemenway concludes:

"The expenditures of our government are large and by unthinking persons, and especially by misguided newspapers, are denounced as extravagant, and yet, according to the very best authority, our national government is the most economically administered of any in the civilized world."

A table to substantiate this statement is giving showing the per capita expenditures of the leading nations. The highest given is New Zealand, where the per capita expense is $30.38; the lowest is the United States, with a per capita of $7.97.

A Timely suggestion.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is certain to be needed before the winter is over, and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system. In almost every instance a severe cold may be warded off by taking this remedy freely as soon as the first indication of the cold appears. There is no danger in giving it to children, for it contains no harmful substance. It is pleasant to take—both adults and children like it. Buy it and you will get the best. It always cures. Sold by Alvin H. Balger.

OPPOSED TO VIOLENCE.

Mitchell Would Rather Lose a Strike Than Resort to Physical Force.

New York, April 29.—John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers of America, says in an article to be printed today:

"It is sometimes claimed that no strike can be won without the use of physical force. I do not believe this to be true, but if it is better that the strike be lost than that it succeed through violence and the commission of outrages.

"The struggle of labor is not for a day or a month or a year, and the cause of unionism is not lost through any single strike or through any number of strikes. If it were true that all strikes would fail if physical force could not be resorted to, it would be better to demonstrate that fact and to seek remedy in other directions than to permit strikes to degenerate into conflicts between armed men.

"If it be shown that strikes cannot be won without violence, then it will be necessary to secure reforms for workmen exclusively through political action."

IT COSTS YOU NOTHING

Will Reed Will Return Your Money If Mi-o-na Does Not Cure You.

There are hundreds of people in East Liverpool who were not the least bit surprised when they read in the News Review that Will Reed is selling Mi-o-na on a guarantee to refund the money in case it did not cure. This marvelous dyspepsia remedy will cure the worst case of indigestion, headache, dizziness or the general played out condition that afflicts every one suffering with stomach trouble.

Mi-o-na does not simply relieve; it cures. Will Reed can tell you of many well known people in this city whom this remedy has restored to health, often after they have tried many other methods of treatment with little or no benefit.

The best kind of advertising is the praise of a pleased customer. And there are hundreds in East Liverpool today praising Mi-o-na because it cured them. A few months ago they could eat nothing without wondering what the result would be. Since using Mi-o-na they eat what they want and when they want with no fear of suffering.

This medicine is in the form of a small tablet, very pleasant to take and costs only 50c a box. It is a pure medicine that speedily and permanently cures all forms of stomach trouble and is the only one that can be sold under a positive guarantee without any restriction, to refund the money if it does not cure.

Shanghai, April 29.—2 P. M.—It is reported here that the Russians have suffered a disastrous repulse after two days' fighting on the Yalu river. The Japanese forces crossed the river and the Russians retreated.

St. Petersburg, April 29.—The operations of the Vladivostok squadron have revived the spirits of the people of St. Petersburg who have been downcast since the destruction of the Petropavlovsk and the consequent confinement of the remnant of the Port Arthur fleet to the harbor. The fact that the navy is doing something of an offensive character appeals to the popular mind which has been unable to appreciate the inactivity of the Vladivostok squadron.

It is generally recognized that Rear Admiral Yeszen cannot do more than frighten the Japanese and compel them to exercise greater care in their military movements, as the sinking of a few transports or even cruisers can have no permanent effect on the result of the war.

St. Petersburg is loaded with rumors regarding the sinking of the Japanese military transport the Kin Shin Maru. One report has it that 3,600 men were aboard the transport when she went down, but the admiralty insists that there were only 200.

ST. PETERSBURG HAILS VICTORY

Vladivostok Squadron Overhauls Vessel Loaded With Troops and Sinks Her—Some Are Saved—Small Fights Along Yalu River Reported.

Shanghai, April 29.—2 P. M.—It is reported here that the Russians have suffered a disastrous repulse after two days' fighting on the Yalu river. The Japanese forces crossed the river and the Russians retreated.

St. Petersburg, April 29.—The operations of the Vladivostok squadron have revived the spirits of the people of St. Petersburg who have been downcast since the destruction of the Petropavlovsk and the consequent confinement of the remnant of the Port Arthur fleet to the harbor. The fact that the navy is doing something of an offensive character appeals to the popular mind which has been unable to appreciate the inactivity of the Vladivostok squadron.

It is generally recognized that Rear Admiral Yeszen cannot do more than frighten the Japanese and compel them to exercise greater care in their military movements, as the sinking of a few transports or even cruisers can have no permanent effect on the result of the war.

St. Petersburg is loaded with rumors regarding the sinking of the Japanese military transport the Kin Shu Maru. One report has it that 3,600 men were aboard the transport when she went down, but the admiralty insists that there were only 200.

It is said that the emperor is highly indignant over the affair and that he will relieve Yeszen and order him to be court martialled. This report lacks confirmation in responsible naval circles, where it is reiterated that no other course could be pursued and that the admiral only fired when the Japanese categorically refused to surrender and adopted a hostile attitude. London, April 29.—The Daily Telegraph's Tokyo correspondent asserts that the Russian cruisers slipped past the Japanese squadron during a fog and regained the harbor of Vladivostok. No further details have been received regarding the sinking of the Japanese transport Kinshu Maru, which incident is much commented on here as proving that the Japanese placed too great confidence in their command of the sea and there is no doubt that it will induce greater vigilance on their part.

Japs Bound for Baikal.

Liao Yang, April 29.—Major Togo Tatzozero, a member of the general staff of the Japanese army, who is a prisoner here, having been captured at Wiju, where he had lived since January last, said to the Associated Press:

"The Russians will be driven as far as Baikal. Further than that we do not wish to go, but we will return to Manchuria and open it to the trade of the world."

"Our people are certain that they can beat the Russians, but I think we began hostilities 50 years too soon. We were not prepared for such a serious war."

"Japan wishes above everything to command the sea and she will then be free from fear of invasion and loss of territory. With the complete destruction of the Russian fleet we believe the war will end."

"Japan's alliance with Great Britain was a stupid act, and it will be of no service to us."

"We know perfectly well that the Americans were never our friends because in the far east they were always our opponents. We are afraid that if Japan is victorious the British and the Americans only will benefit. It would be foolish for Japan to ally herself with the United States, because the Americans do not intend to help us, but rather wish to exploit us."

UNIQUE SUMMER RESORT

The Inside Inn at the World's Fair Affords Unexcelled Advantages for the Sojourner During the Hot Months.

Costs Less Than Equally Good Accommodations Outside the Fair Grounds.

The biggest summer resort hotel in the United States is located at St. Louis, inside the World's Fair grounds. Thousands of persons spend a month or so at the seashore or in the mountains, during the heated term, at summer resort hotels. This year those who are able to enjoy an extended season of "resorting" have something new to try. Seashore and mountain, after many seasons, pall upon one. But here is a chance to go summering in a new and wonderful way.

The Inside Inn accommodates 6,000 guests. It is inside the World's Fair enclosure, and yet is so located that it has all the advantages of a home in the woods. The natural trees of Forest Park surround the Inside Inn. There are many acres of noble trees, with the handsome state buildings here and there, so that the hotel appears to be located in a select suburban section of a beautiful city. Being open to the south and situated on high ground, there is an unobstructed sweep of southern breezes. Far away from the dust and grime of the city, and yet within a few minutes' walk of the heart of the World's Fair, this hotel offers greater inducements as a place of summer resort than any other hostelry in the world this season.

The Inn is far from the seashore, but it is so near the wonderful Cascade Gardens of the Exposition that the roar of the leaping and dashing waters is audible. There is no beach and board walk, with band-stand music; but there is the magnificent Festival Hall, with its world of famous orchestras and its ponderous pipe organ.

Guests at the Inside Inn have all the comforts of home while they are seeing the World's Fair, and it is not to be doubted that a great many individuals, families and parties will do their summer resorting there this season.

BREATHE HEALING AIR

Hymel Destroys Germs of Catarrh and Cures the Disease—Money Back If It Fails.

No other treatment for catarrhal troubles is as pleasant and convenient to use as Hymel. Simply put twenty drops of Hymel in the inhaler that comes with every outfit, and then breathe it for a few minutes four times a day, and it will cure the worst case of catarrh. In this way, one takes into the air passages of the head, throat and lungs air that is filled with balsamic healing and antiseptic fragrance. It goes to the most remote parts of the air passages, destroys all catarrhal germs, and enriches and purifies the blood with additional ozone.

The first day's use of Hymel will show a decided improvement, and in a short time there will be no further trouble with catarrh. Its good effects are quickly gained, and the benefit is permanent.

You take no risk in buying Hymel. The complete outfit costs but one dollar, and if, after using you can say that it did not give satisfaction, Will Reed will return your money. You have the promise of one of the most reliable drug firms in this section, that Hymel will cost you absolutely nothing, if you can say "It did not help." You are to use it entirely at his risk, with the understanding that your money will be returned without question or argument, if you are not satisfied with Hymel.

VIEWS DIVERGENT.

Democratic and Republican Opinions on Work of Congress.

Washington, April 29.—The Republican and the Democratic view of appropriations made by the Fifty-eighth congress were presented to the house by Chairman Hemenway of the appropriations committee and Representative Livingston of Georgia, the ranking Democratic member of that committee.

"Good government housekeeping" is the caption chosen by Mr. Hemenway to represent his views. "A congress that has done nothing but spend money" is the heading of Mr. Livingston's summary. After reviewing the expenditures of the next fiscal year, Mr. Hemenway concludes: "The expenditures of our government are large and by unthinking persons, and especially by misguided newspapers, are denounced as extravagant, and yet, according to the very best authority, our national government is the most economically administered of any in the civilized world."

A table to substantiate this statement is giving showing the per capita expenditures of the leading nations. The highest given is New Zealand, where the per capita expense is $30.38; the lowest is the United States, with a per capita of $7.97.

OPPOSED TO VIOLENCE.

Mitchell Would Rather Lose a Strike Than Resort to Physical Force.

New York, April 29.—John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers of America, says in an article to be printed today:

"It is sometimes claimed that no strike can be won without the use of physical force. I do not believe this to be true, but if it is better that the strike be lost than that it succeed through violence and the commission of outrages. "The struggle of labor is not for a day or a month or a year, and the cause of unionism is not lost through any single strike or through any number of strikes. If it were true that all strikes would fail if physical force could not be resorted to, it would be better to demonstrate that fact and to seek remedy in other directions than to permit strikes to degenerate into conflicts between armed men. "If it be shown that strikes cannot be won without violence, then it will be necessary to secure reforms for workingmen exclusively through political action."

IT COSTS YOU NOTHING

Will Reed Will Return Your Money If Mi-o-na Does Not Cure You.

There are hundreds of people in East Liverpool who were not the least bit surprised when they read in the News Review that Will Reed is selling Mi-o-na on a guarantee to refund the money in case it did not cure. This marvelous dyspepsia remedy will cure the worst case of indigestion, headache, dizziness or the general played out condition that afflicts every one suffering with stomach trouble. Mi-o-na does not simply relieve; it cures. Will Reed can tell you of many well known people in this city whom this remedy has restored to health, often after they have tried many other methods of treatment with little or no benefit.

The best kind of advertising is the praise of a pleased customer. And there are hundreds in East Liverpool today praising Mi-o-na because it cured them. A few months ago they could eat nothing without wondering what the result would be. Since using Mi-o-na they eat what they want and when they want with no fear of suffering.

This medicine is in the form of a small tablet, very pleasant to take and costs only 50c a box. It is a pure medicine that speedily and permanently cures all forms of stomach trouble and is the only one that can be sold under a positive guarantee without any restriction, to refund the money if it does not cure.

ST. PETERSBURG HAILS VICTORY

Vladivostok Squadron Overhauls Vessel Loaded With Troops and Sinks Her—Some Are Saved—Small Fights Along Yalu River Reported.

Shanghai, April 29.—P. M.—It is reported here that the Russians have suffered a disastrous repulse after two days' fighting on the Yalu river. The Japanese forces crossed the river and the Russians retreated.

St. Petersburg, April 29.—The operations of the Vladivostok squadron have revived the spirits of the people of St. Petersburg who have been downcast since the destruction of the Petropavlovsk and the consequent confinement of the remnant of the Port Arthur fleet to the harbor. The fact that the navy is doing something of an offensive character appeals to the popular mind which has been unable to appreciate the inactivity of the Vladivostok squadron.

It is generally recognized that Rear Admiral Yeszen cannot do more than frighten the Japanese and compel them to exercise greater care in their military movements, as the sinking of a few transports or even cruisers can have no permanent effect on the result of the war.

St. Petersburg is loaded with rumors regarding the sinking of the Japanese military transport the Kin Shin Maru. One report has it that 3,600 men were aboard the transport when she went down, but the admiralty insists that there were only 200. It is said that the emperor is highly indignant over the affair and that he will relieve Yeszen and order him to be court martialled. This report lacks confirmation in responsible naval circles, where it is reiterated that no other course could be pursued and that the admiral only fired when the Japanese categorically refused to surrender and adopted a hostile attitude. London, April 29.—The Daily Telegraph's Tokyo correspondent asserts that the Russian cruisers slipped past the Japanese squadron during a fog and regained the harbor of Vladivostok. No further details have been received regarding the sinking of the Japanese transport Kinshin-Mar. which incident is much commented on here as proving that the Japanese placed too great confidence in their command of the sea and there is no doubt that it will induce greater vigilance on their part.

Cities Divided into Two Classes With Optional Plan For Cleveland, Cincinnati, Columbus, Toledo and Dayton—Small Boards For All Other Districts—Maximum Levy of Twelve Mills For School Purposes.

Columbus, O. — (Special) — Perhaps the most important law enacted by the Seventy-sixth general assembly was the school code. It is a certainty that no piece of legislation so interested the legislators. There can not be much doubt that a good code was enacted, for the proposition consumed a major portion of the latter part of the session. The interests of the public schools were championed by every man in both houses, and while all did not get what they wanted, the general result is very satisfactory.

A comprehensive summary of the law is given herewith:

The maximum school levy is :
: fixed at 12 mills.
: Villages, special districts and :
: townships shall have a board of :
: five, elected at large. A subdi- :

: ships. In villages the board ap- :

: Cities are divided into two :

: In the five large cities, Cleve- :

: elected by subdistricts. This :
: permits Cincinnati to retain its :

CONSTIPATION CAN BE CURED

Good Health is Utterly Impossible Unless the Waste Products of the Body Are Got Rid of—A Safe, Natural Remedy Is to Be Had from Any Druggist.

Iron-Ox Tablets not only relieve, but permanently cure constipation.

They do it not by violent purgative and cathartic action, but by so toning up the stomach and bowels that they perform their natural functions without the aid of harmful drugs.

Remember Iron-Ox Tablets are not purgative or cathartic in their effect; they are tonic-laxative; they cure by building up the entire system. Purgatives and cathartics give only temporary relief by violent and injurious action—they do far more harm than good.

Iron-Ox Tablets are concentrated nerve food—they abound in brain-making elements—they do not produce a temporary exhilaration, followed by a weakening reaction, as do liquid tonics composed of drugged alcohol which leads to the drink habit.

Anything which shocks the system into activity is dangerous. Do not expect immediate perceptible effects from Iron-Ox Tablets. They produce a natural, regular building up of all the functions. This takes a little time, but a successful result is absolutely certain.

Fifty Iron-Ox Tablets in an attractive aluminum pocket-case, 25 cents at druggists, or from The Iron-Ox Remedy company, Detroit, Mich.

necessary to incorporate them in the newly-enacted measure.

The provisions of the new code are covered in the following epitome of the law:

Not later than July 1 next the present city school legislative body shall pass a resolution fixing the number of members in accordance with the act, and subdivide the city into subdistricts, to be composed of adjacent and compact territory. The lines of subdistricts refixed shall not be changed until after each succeeding federal census.

If the city legislative body fails to redistrict the city, on application of the president of the board the state school commissioner shall district the city.

Districts are to be numbered from one up, consecutively, and at the first election members to be elected from the odd-numbered districts shall be elected for two years, and from the even-numbered districts for four years, and thereafter their successors shall be elected for four years. Members at large are to be elected for two and four years, if there be two, and if more than two, one-half for each term, if the number is divisible by two, but if not, then the quotient of the whole number, less one, divided by two, shall be elected for two years, and the remaining members for four years. After the first election all are to be elected for four years.

Nominations for candidates may be made by petitions, signed in the aggregate by not less than 25 electors of either sex, except that in city school districts such petitions shall be signed by electors not less in number than one for every 100 persons who voted at the preceding election. Petitions must be filed 15 days prior to election, and the deputy state supervisors must publish the candidates' names on two different days in two newspapers of opposite politics.

The board of education, which has or may create a teachers' pension fund, may contribute to that fund not to exceed 2 per cent of the gross receipts of the board raised by taxation.

The board of education of village school districts shall consist of five members elected at large for a term of four years. The board of education of township school districts shall consist of five members elected at large for a term of four years.

A township board of education may submit to the electors the question of centralization. If the proposition is lost there shall be no other vote for two years, and if carried it shall be effective for three years, and then only a majority vote against centralization shall result in re-establishing the subdistrict plan.

In all township districts the schools of which are not centralized there shall be elected in each subdistrict on the second Monday in April, 1905, and annually thereafter, a school director, who shall take charge of the schoolhouse and the property thereof, and on order of the board of education make repairs. He shall also be the school enumerator. He is to have no vote in the board of education and is practically a business manager.

The board of education of a special school district shall consist of five members and serve for four years. If pupils reside more than one and one-half miles from the special district schoolhouse the board of education must furnish conveyance for such pupils.

The board of education of every district shall provide a sinking fund for the extinguishment of its bonded indebtedness. This commission shall be composed of five members, appointed by the court of common pleas in the county in which the district is chiefly located, except that in city or village districts the sinking fund commission of the city or village may be the sinking fund commission for the school district.

The board of education of any school district shall have authority to provide for the deposit of any or all moneys, but no bank shall be given more than its paid-in capital, and in no event to exceed $300,000. In school districts containing two or more banks competitive bids shall be received for the use of the school funds, and the interest must not be less than 2 per cent. If there is only one bank in a district the board may receive bids from banks outside, and if there is evidence of collusion any outside bank may be selected as depository.

Boards of education are required to prescribe a graded course of study subject to the approval of the state school commissioner.

An elementary school is defined as a school in which instruction and training are given in spelling, writing, reading, arithmetic, English language, English grammar and composition, geography, history of the United States, including civil government, physiology and hygiene; but nothing shall be construed as abridging the power of boards to cause instruction to be given in vocal music, drawing, elementary algebra. The elements of agriculture and other branches which they may deem advisable for the best interests of the school under their charge.

Present boards of education shall not employ a superintendent or teacher for a term to extend beyond the school year ending Aug. 31, 1905.

All teachers of the public schools may dismiss their schools to attend county institutes, and teachers are to be paid one week's additional salary for regular attendance at the institute.

The board of education of any district may expend not to exceed $500 annually for the instruction of teachers.

All existing officers of boards of education and school councils shall hold their respective offices until boards of education are elected and organized under the provisions of this act.

JUDGEMENT ASKED

Against John E. Farrell Et Al. in a Suit For $517 and Interest.

Lisbon, April 28.—(Special.)—The Milligan Hardware & Supply company, of East Liverpool, has filed suit in court here against Valeria and John E. Farrell, John S. Goodwin, Grace A. Sutmyer and the Columbiana County Building, Loan & Savings company, asking judgment for $517.29, with interest from the 24th day of the present month and that a residence and parts of lots 535 and 536 in East Liverpool be sold to satisfy the judgment.

The plaintiff company alleges that it sold the defendants, Valeria and John E. Farrell, mantels, tile work, gas grates, etc., to be used in furnishing a new residence, to the value of $691.71. It is alleged that these two defendants had a legal title to the premises but later they sold that part of lot 536 which they owned, to John S. Goodwin and that part of lot 535, which they owned and on which the residence is situated, to Grace A. Sutmyer, a sister of Mrs. Farrell. On March 10, 1902, the plaintiff company filed its claim with the county recorder, making it a mechanic's lien on the property and the sum sued for yet remains unpaid. The building and loan association is made a party defendant on the grounds that its alleged interest in the premises is subordinate to that of the plaintiff and the petition asks that it be required to set up its claim.

FINAL HEARING IN THE WYMAN CASE

The Date Set for 1 O'Clock Tomorrow Afternoon at City Council Chamber.

The Wyman case will be concluded tomorrow afternoon. Commissioner Gaston has set the final hearing for 1 o'clock at the city hall. The attorneys are ready, at least they have so notified Mr. Gaston. A stenographer of the city will take the testimony.

Commissioner Gaston would not say today whether or not he will permit the defendant's attorneys to produce testimony bearing on the character of Officers Morris, Dawson, Audenderheide and Dunn. It will be recalled that he informed the attorneys that he would not.

THROWN FROM WAGON AND BADLY HURT

Driver for McNiel Pottery Severely Bruised By An Accident.

Clark Stilwell, driver for the D. E. McNiel pottery, was severely injured this morning by being thrown from the wagon on which he was standing. The driver was coming along Fifth street and when near the corner of Washington, the horses became frightened. They made a short turn, and the wagon was twisted sidewise, throwing Mr. Stilwell to the pavement. He was badly bruised, and an old rupture was hurt over again, making it impossible for him to walk.

The patrol wagon was called and the injured driver hauled to his home on First street, Chester. Dr. O. D. Shay was summoned and succeeded in making him comfortable. The occurrence was particularly unfortunate just at this time, as Mrs. Stilwell and their infant child are both sick, and there is no one to nurse the patients.

SHOT LODGED

Joseph Shane Tells of a Difficulty Encountered in Oil Well Shooting.

Joseph Shane, who is employed as engineer in the Knoxville oil field, was in the city yesterday. He has lately been working on the wells being drilled on the Shane farm. He says that in an attempt to shoot one of the wells Wednesday a shot of 60 quarts of glycerine was stuck in the casing and an effort is now being made to remove it by experts in that line.

The shot is lodged about 150 feet from the bottom of the hole, and if it is exploded while the workmen are trying to remove it all the casing will be torn out.

JUDGEMENT ASKED

Against John E. Farrell Et Al. in a Suit For $517 and Interest.

Lisbon, April 28.—(Special.)—The Milligan Hardware & Supply company, of East Liverpool, has filed suit in court here against Valeria and John E. Farrell, John S. Goodwin, Grace A. Sutmyer and the Columbiana County Building, Loan & Savings company, asking judgment for $517.29, with interest from the 24th day of the present month and that a residence and parts of lots 535 and 536 in East Liverpool be sold to satisfy the judgment.

The plaintiff company alleges that it sold the defendants, Valeria and John E. Farrell, mantels, tile work, gas grates, etc., to be used in furnishing a new residence, to the value of $691.71. It is alleged that these two defendants had a legal title to the premises but later they sold that part of lot 536 which they owned, to John S. Goodwin and that part of lot 535, which they owned and on which the residence is situated, to Grace A. Sutmyer, a sister of Mrs. Farrell. An March 10, 1902, the plaintiff company filed its claim with the county recorder, making it a mechanic's lien on the property and the sum sued for yet remains unpaid. The building and loan association is made a party defendant on the grounds that its alleged interest in the premises is subordinate to that of the plaintiff and the petition asks that it be required to set up its claim.

FINAL HEARING IN THE WYMAN CASE

The Date Set for 1 O'Clock Tomorrow Afternoon at City Council Chamber.

The Wyman case will be concluded tomorrow afternoon. Commissioner Gaston has set the final hearing for 1 o'clock at the city hall. The attorneys are ready, at least they have so notified Mr. Gaston. A stenographer of the city will take the testimony. Commissioner Gaston would not say today whether or not he will permit the defendant's attorneys to produce testimony bearing on the character of Officers Morris, Dawson, Aufderheide and Dunn. It will be recalled that he informed the attorneys that he would not.

THROWN FROM WAGON AND BADLY HURT

Driver for McNiel Pottery Severely Bruised By An Accident.

Clark Stilwell, driver for the D. E. McNiel pottery, was severely injured this morning by being thrown from the wagon on which he was standing. The driver was coming along Fifth street and when near the corner of Washington, the horses became frightened. They made a short turn, and the wagon was twisted sideways, throwing Mr. Stilwell to the pavement. He was badly bruised, and an old rupture was hurt over again, making it impossible for him to walk.

The patrol wagon was called and the injured driver hauled to his home on First street, Chester. Dr. O. D. Shay was summoned and succeeded in making him comfortable. The occurrence was particularly unfortunate just at this time, as Mrs. Stilwell and their infant child are both sick, and there is no one to nurse the patients.
